VICTORY 2027

Second Phase Of The Indian National Movement

LECTURE-2 History

Kunal Sir

Physics Wallah

Topics To Be Covered

1. Objectives and Methods –Assertives
2. Difference between Early Nationalists and Assertives
3. Contributions
4. Questions

Methods of Assertive Nationalists

Second Phase of the Indian National Movement (1905-1916) - Brief mention of the causes of the Partition of Bengal and its perspective by the Nationalists. Reasons for Surat Split of 1907; objectives and methods of struggle of Assertive Nationalists. Any two contributions of Bal Gangadhar Tilak, Bipin Chandra Pal and Lala Lajpat Rai. The Muslim League; Year of formation, Factors leading to the formation of the Muslim League and its objectives. The Lucknow Pact - 1916. Signatories of the Pact and its impact.

T-REX Ki Duniya Me Apka Swagat Hai

Which two terms became the battle cry of the assertive nationalists?

(A) Petitions and Appeals

(B) Swaraj and Resolutions

(C) Boycott and Petitions

(D) Swaraj and Boycott

The main cause for the Swadeshi movement was

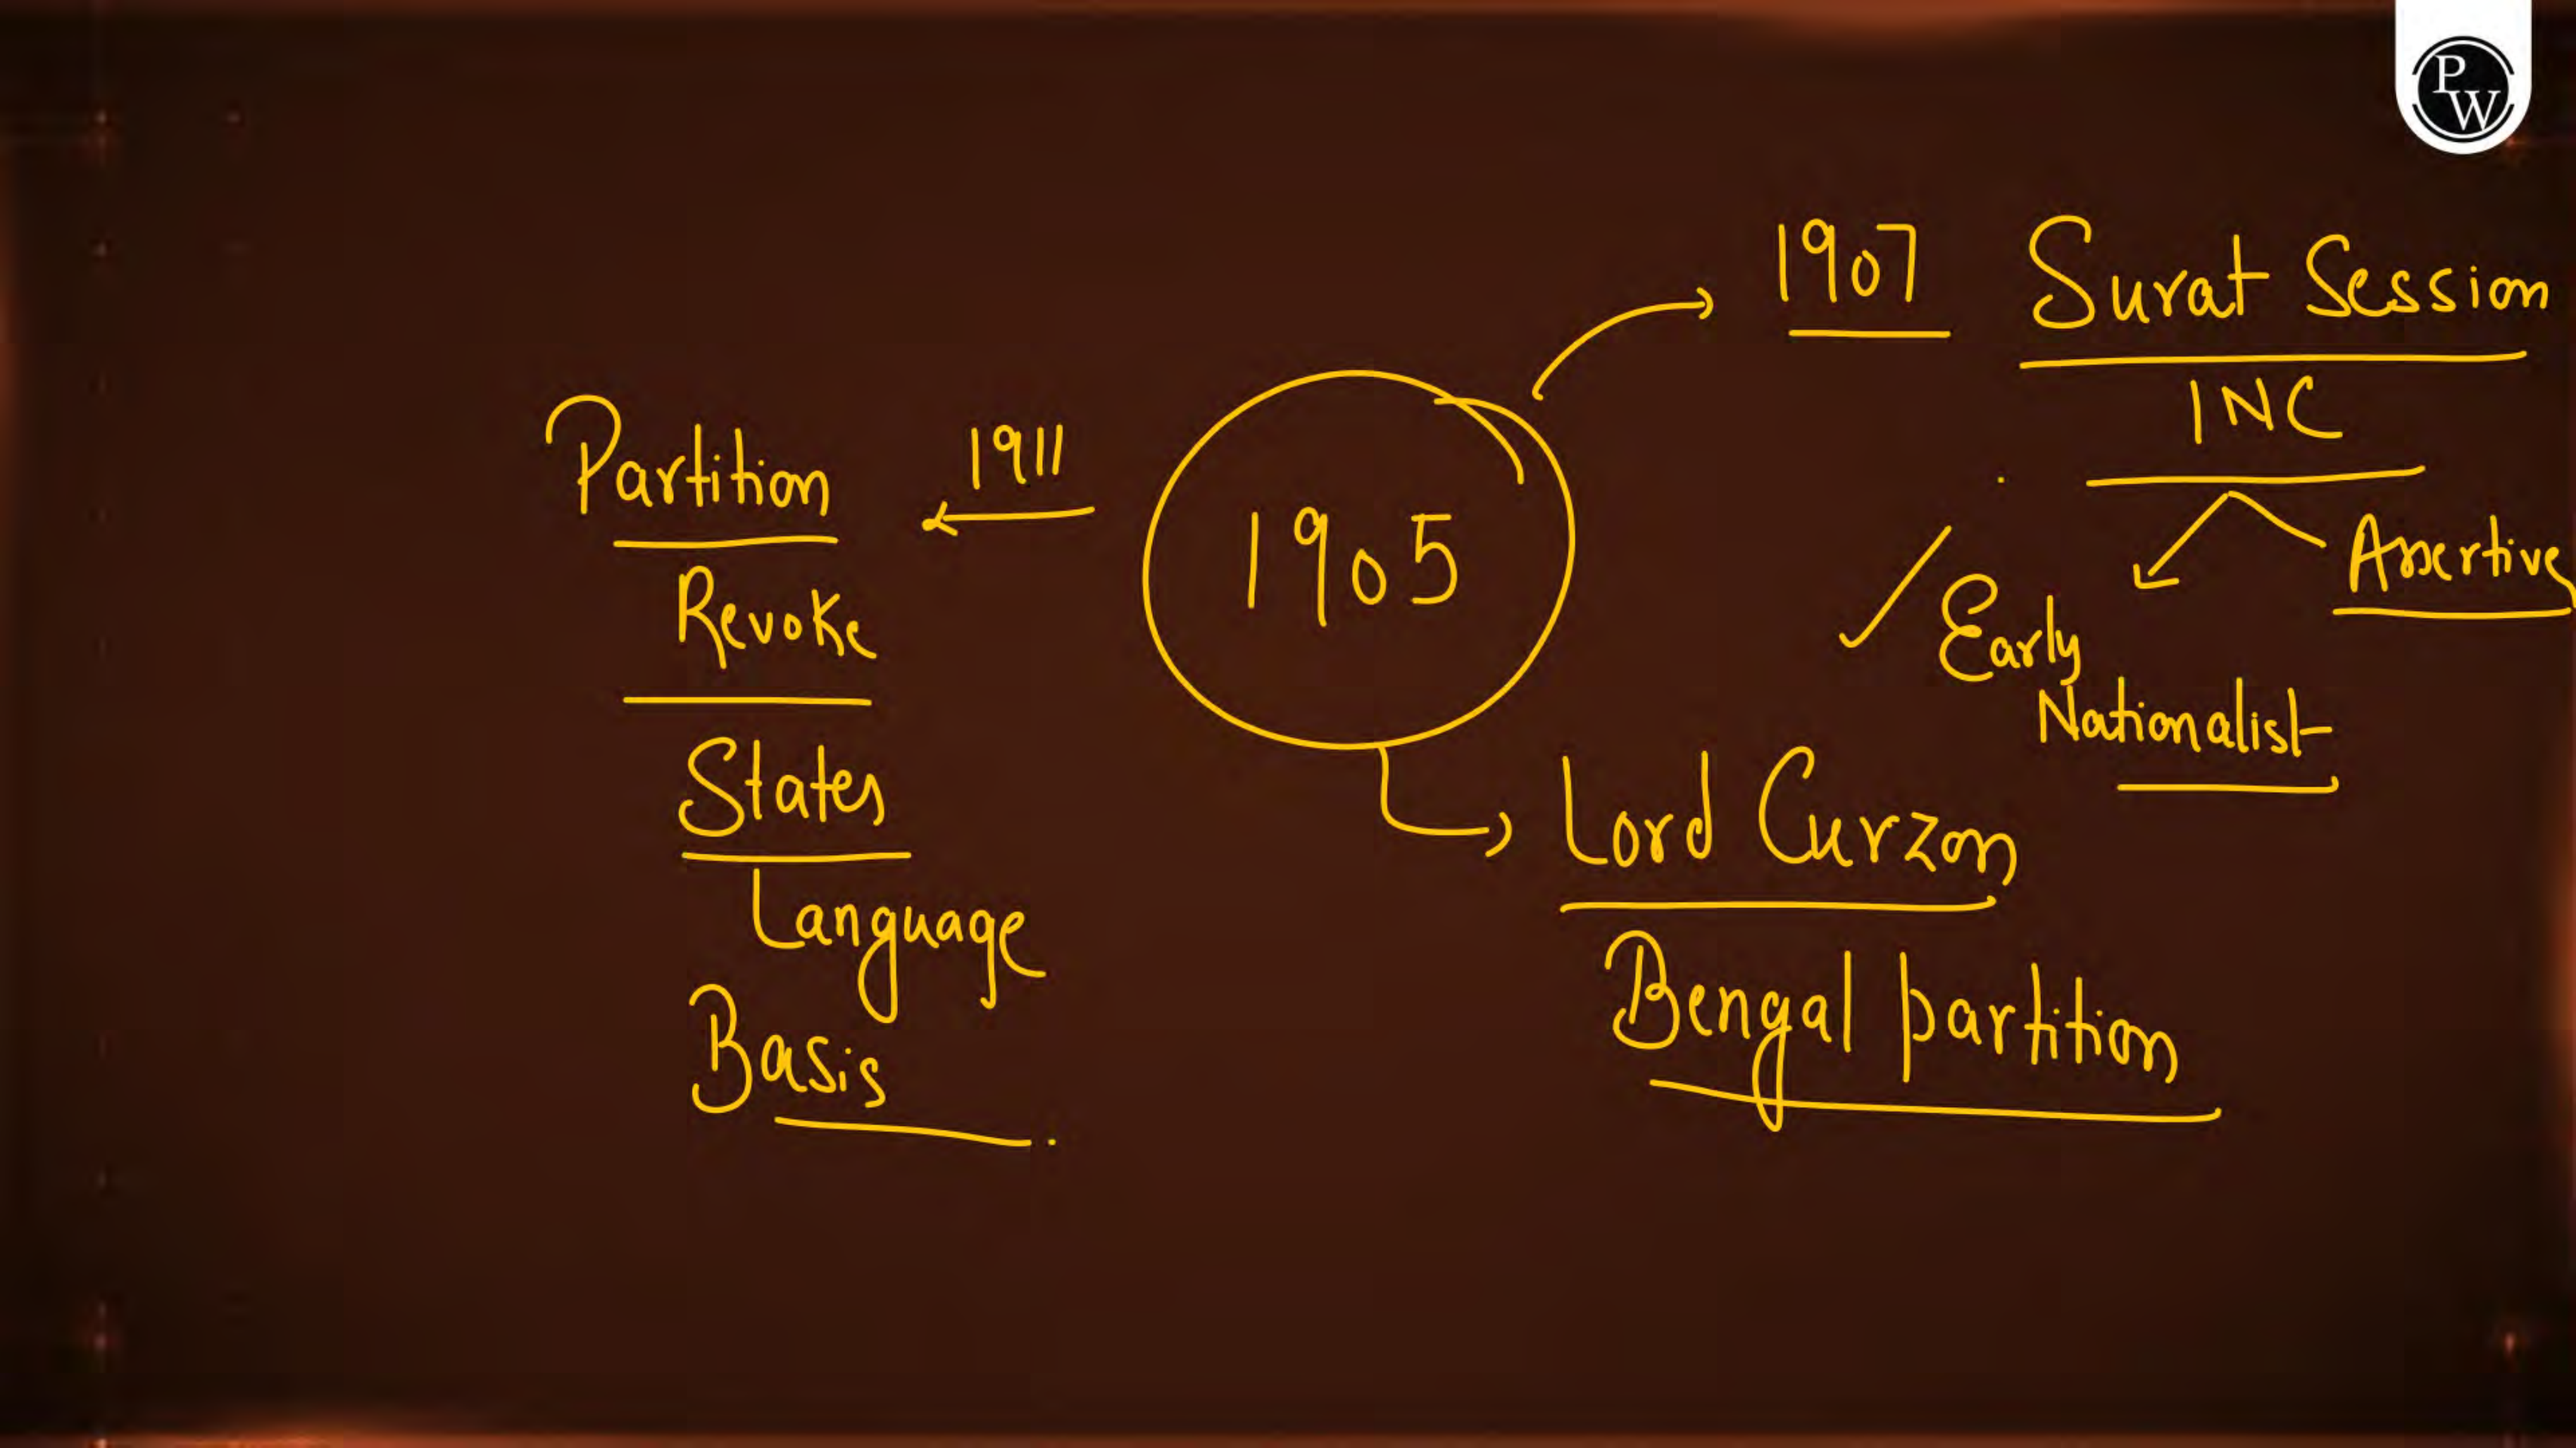

(A) To expel the British from their land

(B) Boycott East India Company's product

(C) Opposition to the Partition of Bengal

(D) Support Indian National Congress session in Calcutta

Second Phase of Indian National Movement

1905
1907
Surat Session
INC
Assertive
Early Nationalist
Lord Curzon
Bengal partition
1911
Partition
Revoke
States
Language
Basis

Assertive Nationalism

Who Were The Assertive Nationalists ?

- The Indian National Congress in its initial years was dominated by the early nationalists who wanted self-government for the Indians. They believed in constitutional methods .
- After 1905, emerged the nationalist leaders who believed in radical policy. They wanted Swaraj or complete independence from British control. They openly opposed the British
- They had mass followers – they suggested active resistance towards British, so they were called Assertive Nationalists .
- The British also called them " extremists "

LAL BAL PAL

Assertive Leaders

- Lala Lajpat Rai
- Bipin Chandra Pal
- Bal Gangadhar Tilak

Causes For Rise of Assertive Nationalism

1. Recognition of true nature of British.
2. Failure of the Early Nationalists .
3. Poor Economic Condition.
4. Growing awareness among Indians .
5. Influence of International events
6. Growth of education and unemployment
7. Ill-Treatment of Indians abroad
8. Repressive Policies of Lord Curzon
9. Partition of Bengal
10. Existence of Nationalist School of Thought

Assertive Nationalists –Methods

Swadeshi

- Use of goods produced by Indian industries
- Aims at making the country self-reliant and self-sufficient
- Assertive nationalists used Swadeshi as a tool not only to promote the Indian industries but also to impact British economic interests .

Boycott

- Stressed on the boycott of foreign goods to boost local Indian industries.
- Aimed at providing employment opportunities to the people.
- It also proved an effective weapon for harming British interests in India.

National Education

- National scheme of Education-focus on universities free from govt. control
- New schools established – Bengal National college (Kolkata),Panchiyappa National College(Chennai) ,Punjab-D.A.V movement (Dayanand Anglo Vedic)
- Aimed at providing education to people through local language

Assertive Nationalists –Methods

Passive Resistance

To oppose

- Followed the policy of non-violent resistance and strong political action to achieve the independence of the country.
- Asked people not to cooperate with the government and to boycott government-controlled educational institutions, courts and services.

Reviving India's Past

Bal Gangadhar

- Tilak revived Ganapati and Shivaji festival- 1895

  ↳ Celebrate again
- Presented Chandragupta Vikramaditya, Rana Pratap, Shivaji Maharaj as national heroes .
- Promoted mass movement .Asked people to sacrifice all for country's freedom

The ultimate objective of the assertive nationalists was

(A) Boycott

(B) Nationalism

(C) Stern measures

(D) Swaraj

Which amongst the following is Not a method of Assertive Nationalists?

(A) National Education

(B) Salt March

(C) Passive Resistance

(D) Boycott

DOMSTO KAISE LAGA MERA NAYA SUNGLASS ?
KAL HI CHURAYA HAI.. HUI... HUI.....

Repressive Measures Of The Government

- In 1908, Tilak was tried and sentenced to 6 years imprisonment - sent to Mandalay prison of Burma [Myanmar].

- Some other leaders like Lala Lajpat Rai sent to Burma without trial in 1907

- Censored all newspapers, prohibited mass meetings and started prosecutions against nationalist associations.

Early Nationalists Vs Assertive Nationalists

- Early Nationalist's 'Swaraj' was limited to self-government i.e. autonomy within the British empire like Australia, New zealand, Canada etc.
- Early Nationalist believed in constitutional methods, within the framework of law while.
- Early Nationalists held good positions in British government. Early Nationalists had faith in British sense of justice .
- Early nationalists inspired from –western philosophers

- Assertive Nationalist aimed at complete swaraj or independence .
- Assertive leaders focused on assertive methods like swadeshi , boycott, passive resistance etc.
- Assertive Nationalists openly opposed the British rule and refused to cooperate. Assertive leaders did not believe in British justice.
- Assertives got inspiration from India's past glory

What were the Methods adopted by assertive nationalists to attain swaraj?

(A) Swadeshi and boycott

(B) National Education

(C) Passive Resistance

(D) All of these

Prominent Assertive Nationalist Leaders -Contributions

[4 Contributions]

1. Bal Gangadhar Tilak is known as the 'Father of Assertive Nationalism'. Born in a Brahmin family at Ratnagiri in Maharashtra.

2. Had a degree in Law, helped in founding the Poona New English School(1880) and the Deccan Education Society (1884)under the guidance of Ranade in 1884. This society later started Fergusson College(Pune)

3. He was the first nationalist who openly declared that Swaraj is the goal of the people. He said, Swaraj is my birthright and I shall have it". He believed political rights could be achieved by demanding them .He organized Akharas and Lathi clubs

4. Started the Ganapati festival to spread nationalist ideas through songs and speeches. He started two newspapers, Kesari (Marathi)and Mahratta (English). Also wrote two books, Gita Rahasya and The Arctic Home in the Vedas.

5. Started the Home Rule League at Pune in 1916 for attaining self-government. He is considered a forerunner to Gandhi.

↳ (3) marks

6. Like Tilak, Gandhi also believed in the principle of 'Swarajya'.

- Both Tilak and Gandhi had mass following.
- Tilak preached the ideas of Swadeshi, boycott and prohibition which were also promoted by Gandhi.
- Tilak –went to prison for country – later this example followed by Gandhi ji and other leaders

Tilak is known for organizing and clubs in Maharashtra

(A) Akhara, political

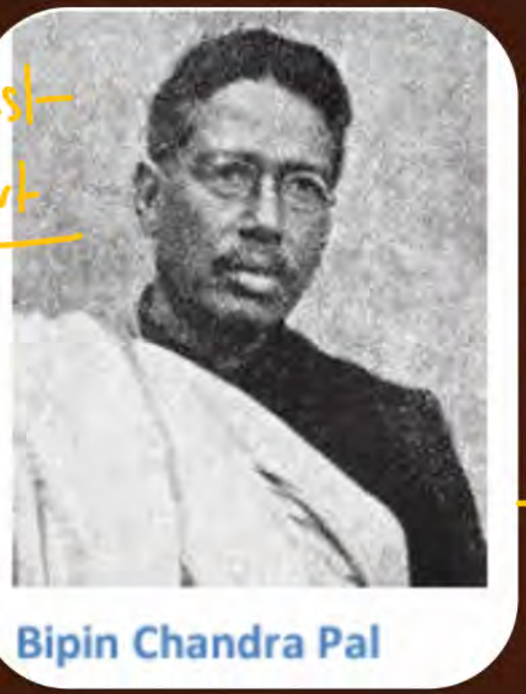

(B) Literary campaigns, religious

(C) Akhara, lathi

(D) Swadeshi, boycott

1. Born in Sylhet (now a part of Bangladesh) in 1858. He is known as the 'Father of Revolutionary Thought' in India. He was a social reformer(attached to Brahmo Samaj. Joined INC in 1886. Visted USA and other European countries –saw how people resisted foreign domination

2. He was a journalist who spread his nationalist ideas through newspapers such as Bengal Public Opinion, The Tribune and New India. His writings were considered seditious by the British government. He was asked to testify against –Aurobindo Ghosh- he refused – sentenced to 6 months imprisonment

Bipin Chandra Pal

5. He supported the development of local industries in India. Promoted Swadeshi and Boycott. Demanded 48 hours of work in a week and increase in wages

6. To establish equality – he wanted to tax rich more heavily than the poor . He died in 1932

3. Was in favour of imparting national education to students. According to him, national education should become the basis of the Indian National Movement

4. He was a social reformer who supported widow remarriage and female education. He opposed caste system

1. Popularly known as 'Punjab Kesari' or 'Sher-e-Punjab'. He was an eminent lawyer, educator, social reformer and a strong critique of the British rule. Birth – Dhudike Village (Punjab -1865). Joined Congress in 1888. Spoke against the British –deported to Mandalay

2. Supporter of the workers' movement and became the first President of the All-India Trade Union Congress(1920). Also elected President of INC(Calcutta Session -1920). 1922 –he was arrested –after release –joined swaraj party .1923-elected to Central Legislative Assembly . Later left Swaraj party .

Lala Lajpat Rai

3. He started a monthly magazine Young India (in USA) to inspire people to join the national movement for attaining Swaraj. He also founded Punjabi, Vande Mataram (an Urdu daily) and People (an English weekly).other Publications –The Call to Young India , England's Debt to India ,The Political Future Of India

4. Closely associated with the Arya Samaj movement. Played role in expanding D. A. V. College at Lahore in 1886. Founded 'Servants of People's Society '-welfare of lower castes . Also opened –schools , hospitals , orphanages

5. Visited many countries to create and mobilise public opinion in favour of India's struggle for independence. He joined the Ghadar party in America in 1914.

6. Led a procession at Lahore against Simon Commission -1928. Received injuries in lathi charge – later died 17 Nov 1928

During which incident Lala Lajpat Rai succumbed to injuries and sacrificed his life?

(A) Jallianwala Bagh tragedy

(B) Khilafat Movement

(C) Simon Commission

(D) Cabinet Mission

HOMEWORK

Type Here

Briefly discuss any three contributions of

(a) Bal Gangadhar Tilak (3)

(b) Lala Lajpat Rai (3)

(c) Bipin Chandra Pal (3).

Thank You
Bye