VICTORY 2027

The Muslim League

LECTURE-2 | History

Kunal Sir

Topics To Be Covered

1. The Muslim League
2. Events Leading to Formation
3. Lucknow Pact
4.

Second Phase of the Indian National Movement (1905-1916) - Brief mention of the causes of the Partition of Bengal and its perspective by the Nationalists. Reasons for Surat Split of 1907; objectives and methods of struggle of Assertive Nationalists. Any two contributions of Bal Gangadhar Tilak, Bipin Chandra Pal and Lala Lajpat Rai. The Muslim League; Year of formation, Factors leading to the formation of the Muslim League and its objectives. The Lucknow Pact - 1916. Signatories of the Pact and its impact.

T-REX Ki Duniya Me Apka Swagat Hai

Kya Haal Chaal ? Victory Ke Veer Champions

Your Monitor Douglas This Side ..

MUSLIM LEAGUE

According to British historians, how was Indian history falsely interpreted to promote communal division?

(A) By focusing on caste divisions only

(B) By glorifying ancient texts

(C) By dividing it into Hindu and Muslim periods

(D) By including Western philosophy

Events leading to the formation of Muslims League

Hindu–Urdu controversy

- In the United Province (UP), Urdu was the court language.

- On being protested by some sections of society, Government issued an order on 8th April, 1900 that all petitions, court summons and official announcements shall be issued in Hindi as well as in Urdu.

Foundation of MAO, 1893

- British encouraged the formation of Mohammedan Anglo-Oriental Defence Association in 1893 in order to counter the growing influence of INC.
- It was formed by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan. It was the part of Aligarh Movement(1875)-this movement tried to promote Western education and social reforms among Muslims in India
- Beck was appointed its secretary.
- Their motive behind it was to prevent Muslims from participating in political movements.

Aligarh Politics

- Nawab Mohsin-ul-Mulk led the Aligarh movement after the death of Sir Sayyid Ahmed khan in 1898. He criticized the government order of 1900 granting equal status to Hindi and Urdu

- The Lt. Governor of UP, MacDonnell demanded the resignation of Mohsin-ul-Mulk from the secretary ship of the MAO trust or to separate himself from the agitation against the government order.

- This made the Muslims angry and inspired them to form a Muslim political organization.

Sir Sayyid Ahmed Khan had started a reform movement among the Muslims called the ..... Movement.

1. Sufi
2. Aligarh
3. Jaipur
4. Wahabi

Partition of Bengal

- Muslims of East Bengal led by Nawab Salimullah of Dacca welcomed the partition because the new province had a Muslim majority.

Disappointed Muslim leaders ← 1911 → Partition / Revoke → States based on language Create

Demands made by Muslim Delegation

- Lord Minto appointed the Arundale committee to workout an expansion of the legislative council.

35 → Agha Khan

- This inspired some communal minded Muslims and decided to put forward their demands.

↳ fanatic / politics in name of religion

- 35 influential Muslims from all over the country led by Agha Khan (Head of Ismaili sect) met viceroy in Shimla on 1st October, 1906 and demanded →

(1) Muslims should be considered a separate Nation within India .

(2) Separate electorate constituencies for Muslims in both provincial councils and the Imperial legislative council.

Separate Electorate

* During elections → Certain areas will be reserved from where → Candidate and Voters → both will be Muslims.

(3) Preference to Muslims while nominating members of viceroy's council.

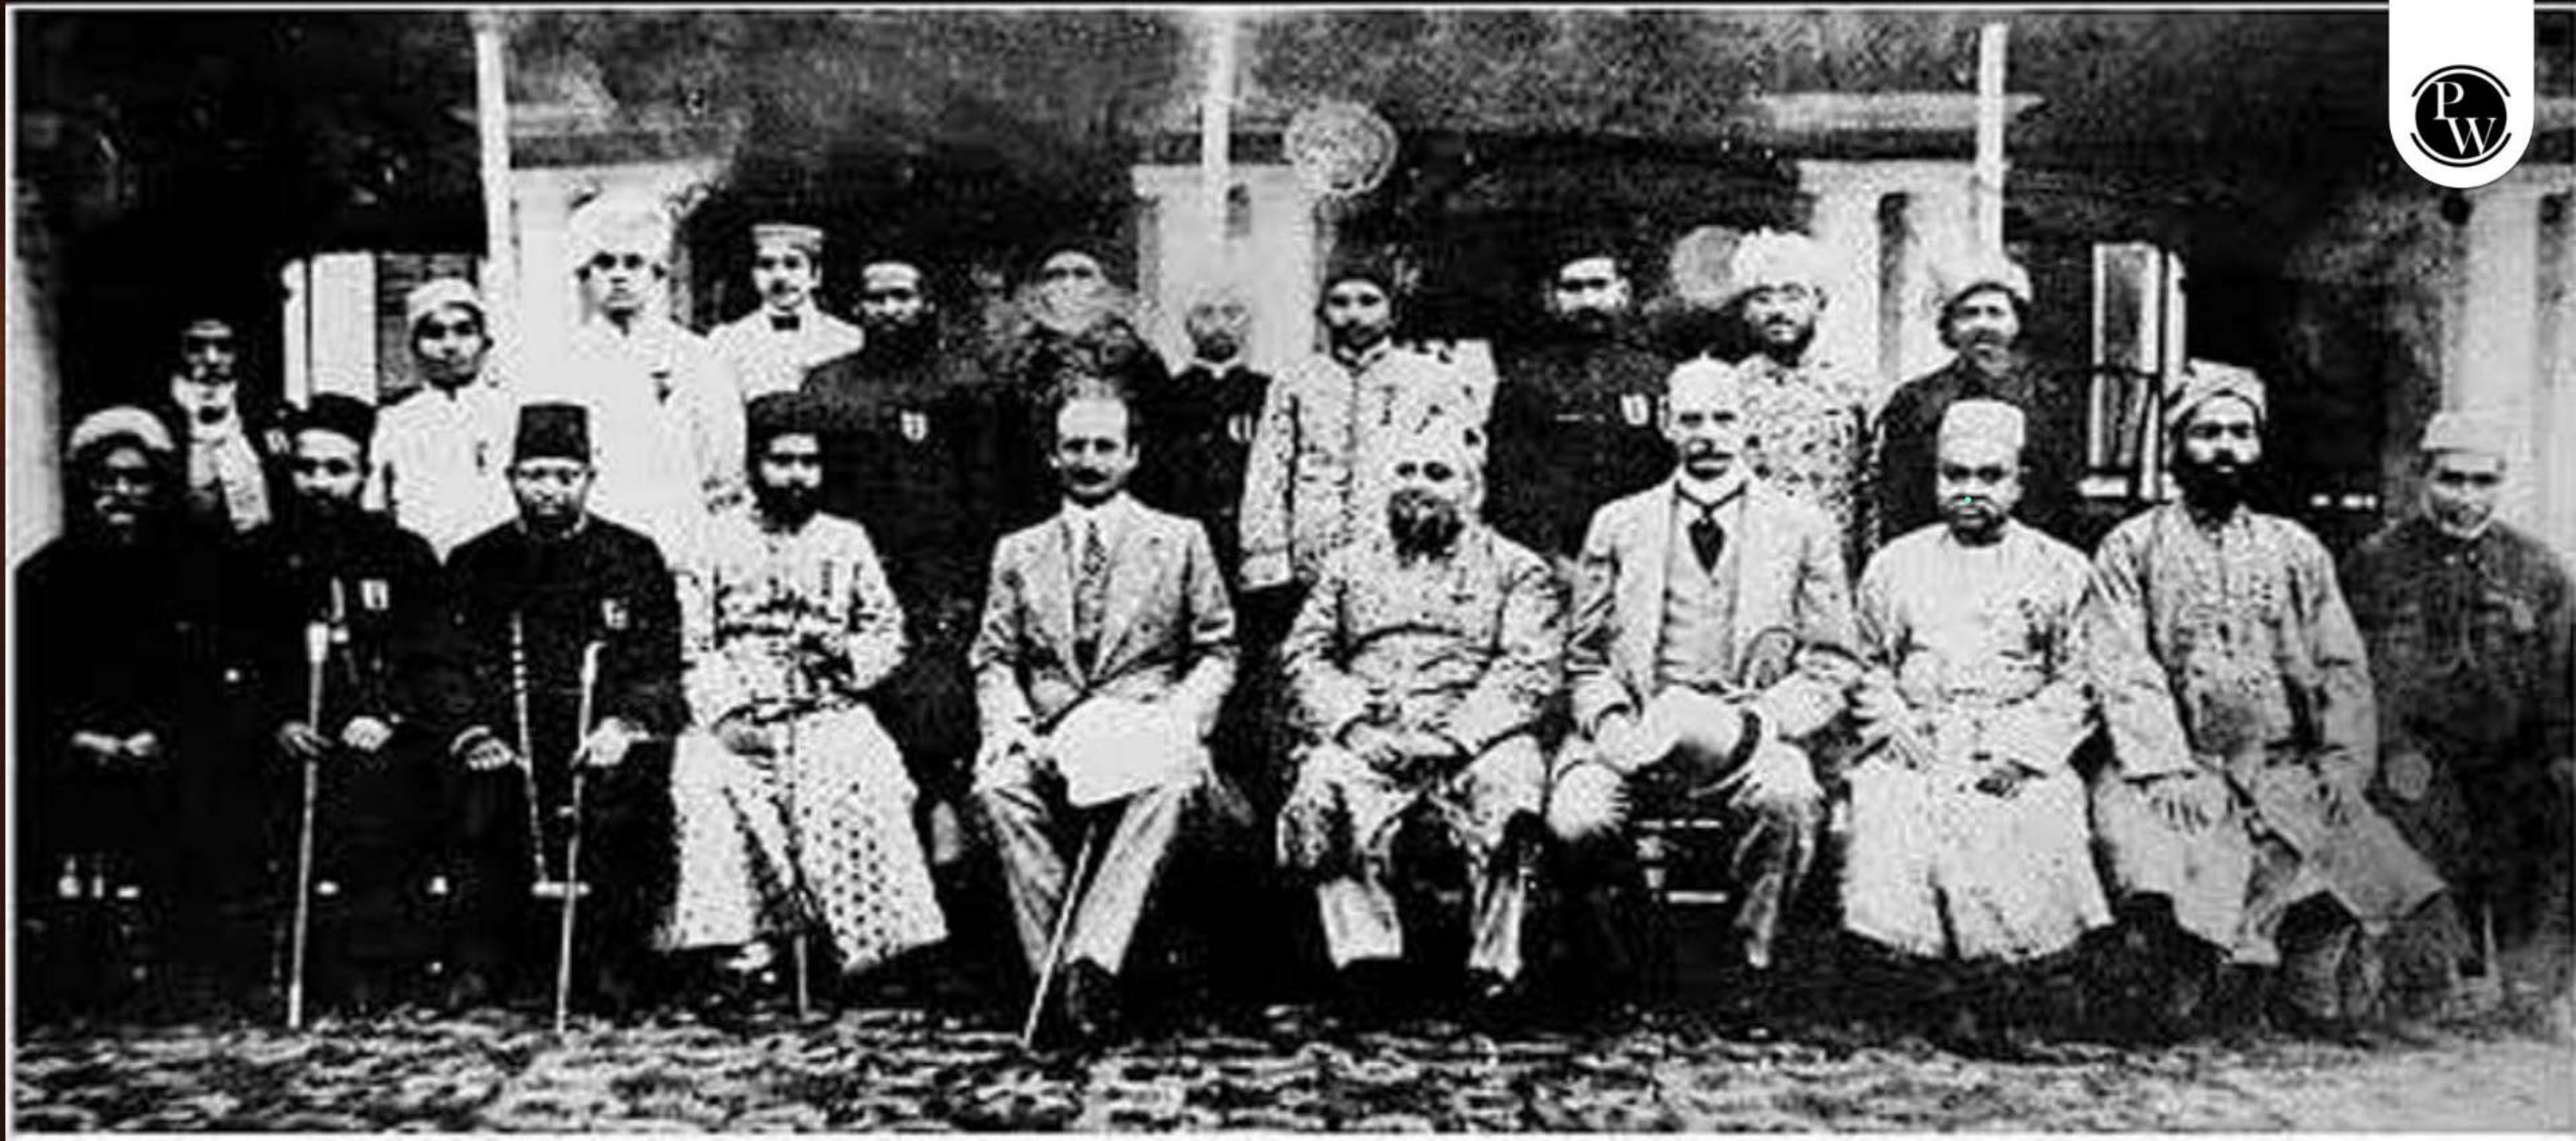

(4) Reservation of seats for Muslims in state services.

↳ govt

(5) More government aid for promoting new Muslim universities.

↳ Support

(6) Need to create a separate Muslim organization

All India Muslim League 1906

Formation of Muslim League

- Motivated by the assurances given to Muslim deputation, Nawab Salimullah took the initiative .
- In December 1906, when important Muslim leaders assembled at Dacca for annual Mohammedan Educational Conference, he arranged a meeting to consider to form a central organisation for Muslims.

- His proposal was accepted and “All India Muslim League” was setup on 30th December, 1906 under the presidentship of Nawab Salimullah.
- Agha Khan was elected as permanent president of the Muslim League- Central office at Aligarh was shifted to Lucknow in 1910.

Aims and objectives

→ 2 marks

- To promote among the Muslims support for the British and remove misconceptions of the government in relation to Muslims.
  ↳ misunderstanding
- To protect and promote political rights and interests of Muslims, to put their demands before the government.
- To prevent the hostile feelings between Muslims and other communities.
  hate | bad

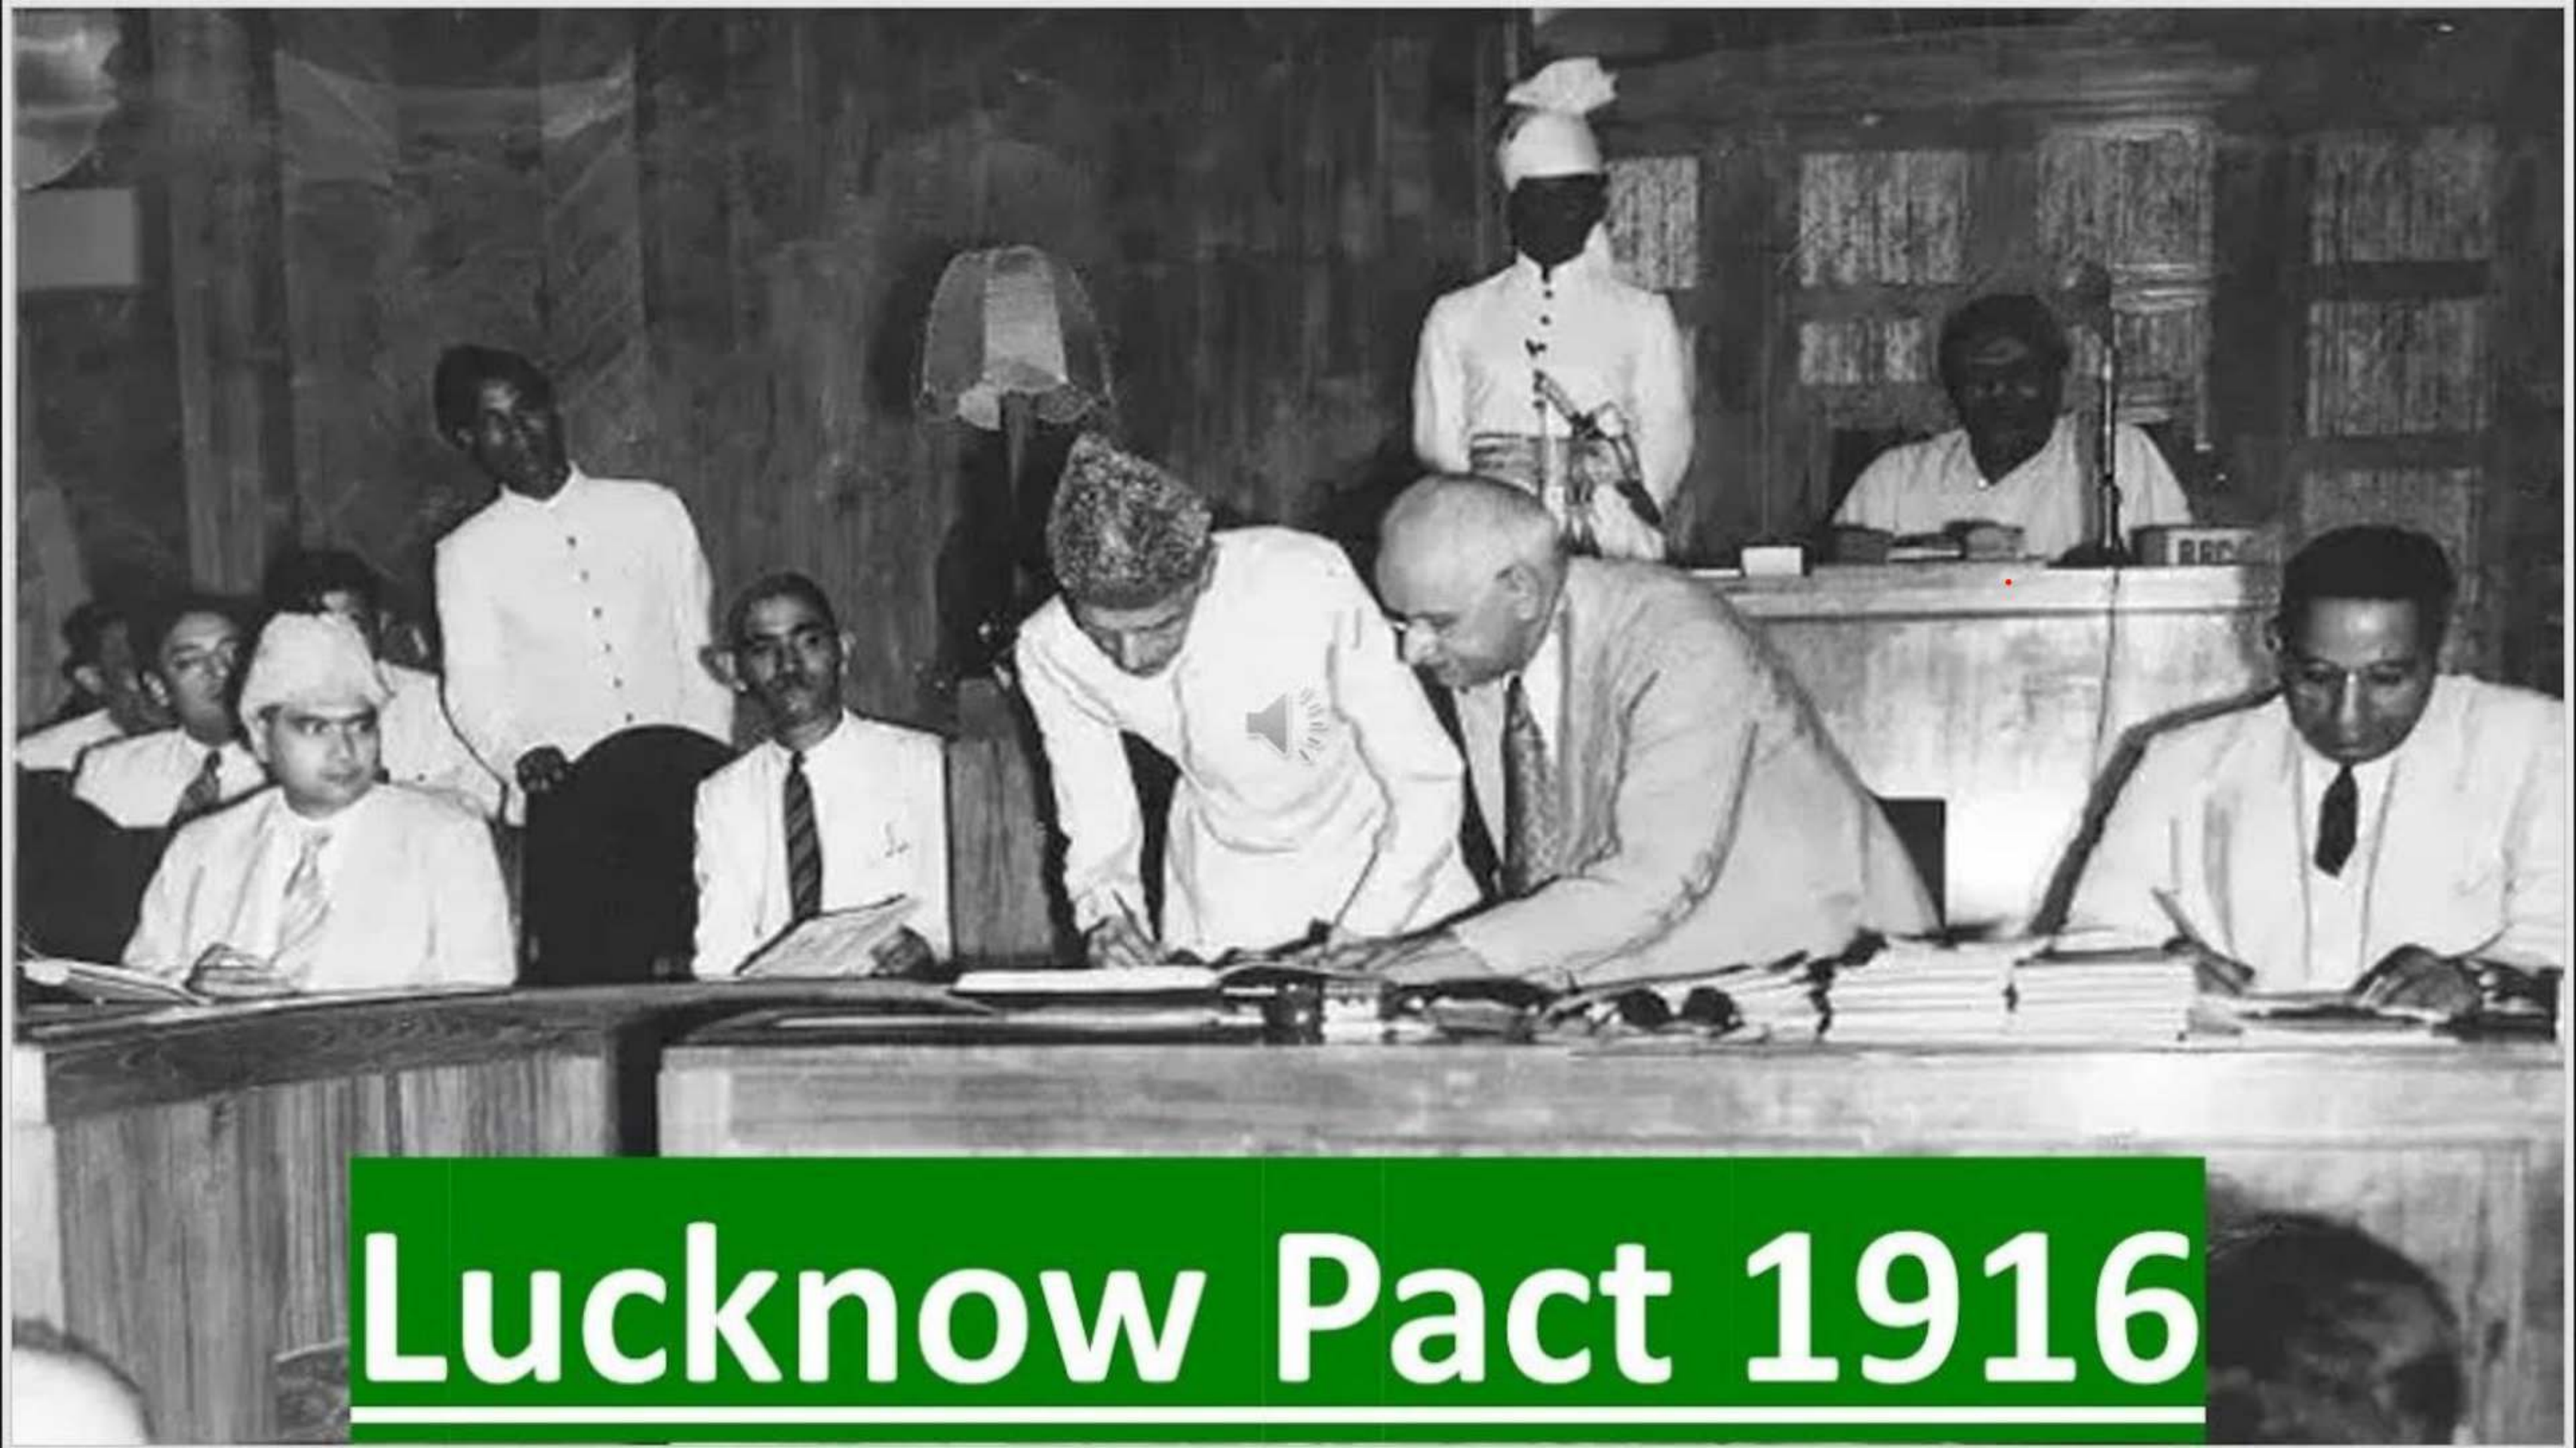

1. Weakened the National Movement

- 2. British supported Muslim League- Morley-Minto reforms of 1909 provided separate electorates for Muslims whereby seats were reserved for Muslims only.
- 3. It was done intentionally to please Muslim league and to create a rift between Muslim league and congress

Which of the following is NOT true about the role of the Muslim League in the beginning?

1. It stood apart from the National Movement
2. It worked against the Congress
3. It focussed its action on the problems faced by the upper class
4. Its political activities were directed against the British.

Lucknow Pact 1916

The Lucknow Pact

- The period during the First World War (1914-1918) was of intense nationalist political activity.
- The events during the war and the prevalent sentiments were responsible for the signing of the Lucknow Pact between the Congress and the Muslim League

* Lucknow Pact → It is an agreement signed between the Muslim league and INC at Lucknow Session in 1916

Circumstances Responsible For Lucknow Pact

1916

1. 1912-13- Ottoman Turkey had to fight Balkan wars

2. British policy towards Turkey not good. WW1- Turkey fought against British and lost the war . Sultan or Caliph of Turkey not treated well

3. Sultan (Khalifa)-also religious head of Islam. Muslims all over – supported him –started Khilafat movements

4. Influenced by National Events
- Partition of Bengal cancelled on religious basis
- Nationalists like Abul Kalam Azad , Ali Brothers spread nationalist ideas among muslims –support for self govt.
- 'Seditious Meetings Act'-muslim leaders arrested –brought INC and Muslim league closer

5. Changes in Objective of Muslim League : 1913- League amended constitution to include' self-govt' under British . Agreed with INC to have a political goal for India

6. Annie Besant and B.G. Tilak played important role in bringing the two organisations closer

7. Compromise between the two groups of the Congress :Tilak rejoined INC -1916- Played major role in resolving differences between INC and League

Terms and Signing of The Lucknow Pact

- 1. Efforts were made to bring the Congress and the Muslim League to reach an agreement on the scheme of political reforms in India.
- 2. In 1915, both the Congress and the League held their sessions at Bombay (Mumbai).
- 3. Bombay session of the League was attended by Congress leaders. The leaders of both the parties made a joint plan of post-war constitutional reforms.
- 4. 1916, the Congress and the League again held simultaneous sessions at Lucknow.
- 5. The joint scheme of political reforms was put forward and adopted by both parties in 1916. This agreement signed between Muslim League and The INC in 1916 is known as Lucknow Pact

Significance of Lucknow Pact

1. Hindu –Muslim Unity : Congress accepted separate electorates for Muslims; Muslims accepted principle of elections and majority rule

2. Unity within the Congress : Both the wings of Congress- Early and Assertive Nationalists –reunited at Lucknow session

3. Congress President of the Lucknow Session of 1916, Ambica Charan Majumdar rightly remarked, "If the united Congress was buried at Surat, it is reborn at Lucknow."

4. Pressure on the Government : Combined unity of INC and the league pressurized govt. to bring political or constitutional reforms

5. Necessity To Pacify Indians : As WWI Continued , leaders of Congress and League – asked govt that demands for Constitutional reforms – not rejected if they want Indians – loyal to the British

(A) In 1871, Lord Mayo's government adopted a resolution which made Urdu the medium of instruction for Muslims in primary and secondary schools.

(R) It was as an attempt to create rift between the Hindus and the Muslims.

1. (R) contradicts (A)
2. (R) is the reason for (A)
3. (A) is true but (R) is false
4. (A) and (R) are independent of each other.

(A) The British wanted to prevent Muslims from participating in any political movement.

(R) The British opposed the formation of the Mohammedan Anglo-Oriental (M.A.O) Defence Association in 1893.

1. (R) contradicts (A)
2. (R) is the reason for (A)
3. (A) is true but (R) is false
4. (A) and (R) are independent of each other.

HOMEWORK

Type Here

Ques Briefly discuss the Significance of the Lucknow Pact (1916)? 3

Thank You