KHILAFAT MOVEMENT

Khilafat Movement

- In the 1st world war, British fought against turkey in which Turkey was defeated and Ottoman Empire was divided.
- Turkish sultan's (Caliph) position weakened.
- Indian Muslims, under the leadership of Ali brothers (Mohammed Ali and Shaukat Ali), Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, Hakim Ajmal Khan, Hasrat Mohani started Khilafat movement with three objective

1. Ottoman Empire (Turkish) should retain his Empire.

2. Sufficient territory for him to enable him to defend the Islamic faiths.

3. Arab Lands (Arabia, Syria, Iraq, Palestine) must remain under the Muslim rule.

- Khilafat Day was observed on 17th October 1919 all over India.
- Seeing an opportunity to unite Hindus and Muslims, Gandhiji supported the Khilafat movement.
- He was elected as president of the All-India Khilafat Conference in November 1919- advised Khilafat committee to follow the policy of non-cooperation with the government.
- By 31st August, Khilafat-NCM started- people resigned from government services, shops selling foreign goods picketed, demonstrations held.

↳ block the entry of a shop

- By the end of 1920, Khilafat movement and the NCM merged into one national wide Movement.
- In 1921, Khilafat committee appealed to the Muslims not to join the police and armed forces and not to pay taxes.
- Ali brothers were arrested on the charges of sedition.

The Chauri Chaura incident occurred at Chauri Chaura in the Gorakhpur district of the United Province, (modern Uttar Pradesh) in British India on 4 February 1922, when a large group of protesters, participating in the Non-cooperation movement, clashed with police, who opened fire. In retaliation the demonstrators attacked and set fire to a police station, killing all of its occupants. The incident led to the deaths of three civilians and 23 policemen. Mahatma Gandhi, who was strictly against violence, halted the Non-cooperation Movement on the national level on 12 February 1922, as a direct result of this incident.

Suspension of NCM: Chauri-Chaura incident

- Chauri-Chaura village in Gorakhpur district UP- incident took place on 4th February 1922.
- Police officers beat some volunteers picketing a liquor shop- 3000 peasants marched to the police station to protest against the police officers.
- Police fired at the protesting peasants- peasants out of anger, setup a nearby police station on fire killing 22 police personnels.
- Gandhiji was shocked and call-off the NCM on 12 February 1922. Gandhiji - arrested on 10th March 1922 on sedition charge- sentenced to 6 years imprisonment- released after two years because of ill health
- His decision to call-off NCM was bitterly criticized by leaders like Moti Lal Nehru, Lala Lajpat Rai and Subhash Chandra Bose etc.

Ques : Gandhi called off the NCM as a result of_____

A. Chauri Chaura Violence

B. Oudh Kisan Sabha Movements

C. Bardoli Satyagraha

D. Simon Commission

Impact of NCM

- National movement became a mass movement, but big industrialists, capitalists and zamindars still remained hostile.
- Generated confidence among the people for freedom. Congress became the organiser and the leader of the masses. Congress was to be led by a 15 member working committee.
- Hindu-Muslim unity fostered- Congress brought the urban Muslims into national movement.
- Efforts to prohibit and remove untouchability, established many schools and colleges, boycott of foreign goods promoted the Indian handicrafts and industries.
- Khadi became the symbol of National movement.

What happened after NCM was called-off?

1. Khilafat issue remained unresolved
   - This led to differences between Congress and Muslim leaders
2. C.R. Das and Motilal Nehru formed → 'Swaraj Party' to fight Council Elections as they lost faith in Gandhi's mass movements.
3. Agricultural Economy
   - worldwide started getting weaker → farmers affected
4. Later the formation of Simon Commission.
