TOPIC: JULIUS CAESAR ACT 1 AND 2 SUMMARY

ACT I AND II SUMMARY

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 1 Scene 1- Summary

CAESAR'S VICTORY AND PEOPLE'S DIVIDED OPINIONS-

Julius Caesar celebrates his triumphant return to Rome after defeating Pompey's sons. The trophies won by him are hung on the statues of Rome. The year is 44 BC.

There is added festivity due to the feast of Lupercalia (February 15 as per the English calendar). The citizens of Rome are out on the streets in large numbers. The crowds cheer Caesar's victory.

Rome had celebrated victories over foreign powers in the past. This is the first time it was celebrating victory over one of their own citizens. This divides Rome among those who support Caesar and those who are opposed to him.

FLAVIUS AND MARULLUS CHIDE TWO COMMONERS

Marullus and Flavius, two government officials who supported Pompey, attempt to discourage celebrating workers.

They are extremely bitter of the manner in which some of the craftsmen cheered Pompey's triumphal procession when he returned as a hero not so long ago.

Flavius and Marullus then decide to remove all the trophies won by Caesar from the statues on which they had been displayed.

THE FEAST OF LUPERCALIA AND THE SUPERSTION

On the same day, Caesar attends the traditional race at the festival of Lupercal and receives a warning from a soothsayer to beware the ides of March. (The middle day of each month was called the ides.)

15th March

BRUTUS AND CASSIUS MEET

Caesar pays no attention to the soothsayer, and the procession continues. Two conspirators, Brutus and Cassius, drop out of the procession. They admit to each other that they would hate to be present when Caesar is made King. There is rumour that Caesar will be offered the crown of Rome. Cassius tries to probe Brutus' feelings about Caesar.

CASSIUS AND BRUTUS SHARE THEIR OPINIONS

When he realises that Brutus is not very well disposed towards Caesar, Cassius discloses his own resentment at the thought of how powerful Caesar has become. Brutus tells Cassius that he loves Caesar but he hates the kind of inordinate power that he has acquired for himself.

Cassius ceases this opportunity and tells Brutus about Caesar's physical and mental weaknesses and the comparative strength of Brutus.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 1 Scene 2- Summary

CAESAR REFUSES THE CROWN

Mark Antony had offered a crown-like coronet on three occasions to Caesar. On each occasion Caesar had set it aside. Casca is convinced that Caesar set it aside reluctantly in order to show the citizens of Rome that he did not wish to become king. The crowd applauded enthusiastically in approval. Then Caesar fell on the ground in an epileptic fit.

CASSIUS' DEVIOUS PLAN

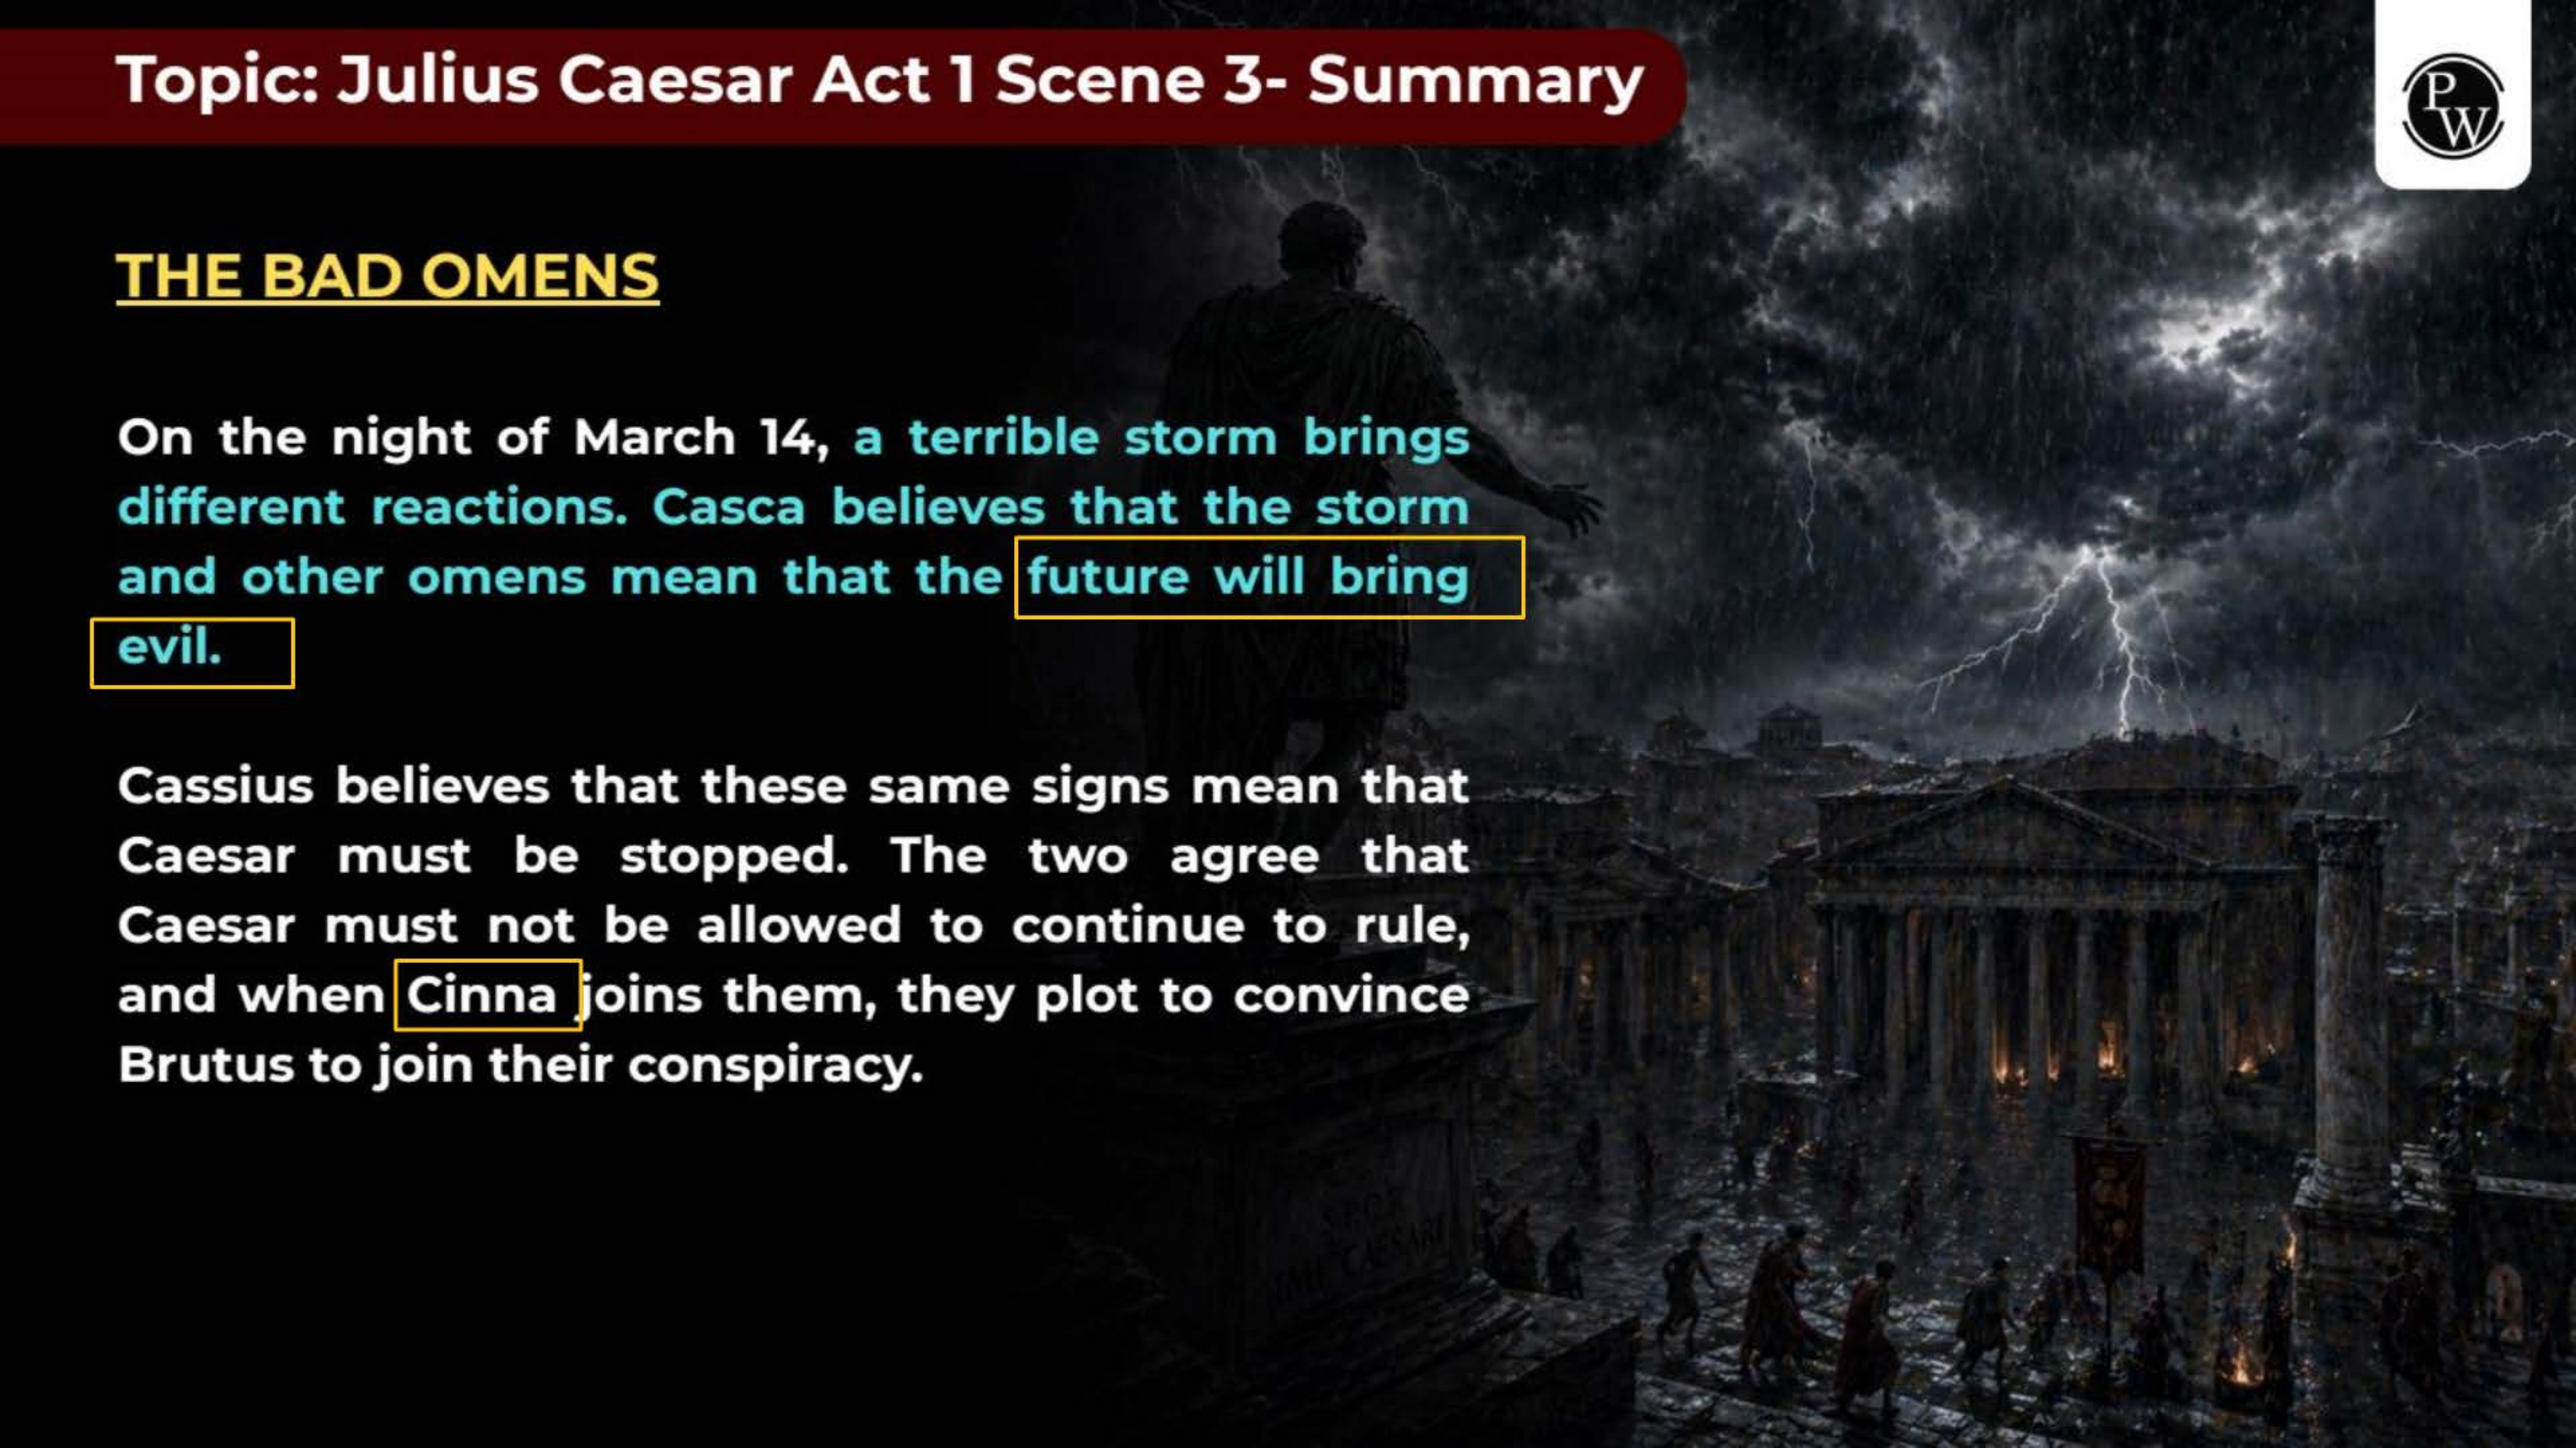

Brutus leaves, after promising to think about what Cassius has said.
Cassius decides to forge a few letters and drop them at places where Brutus can receive them. These letters will be written on behalf of eminent citizens of Rome. They will implore Brutus to save them from Caesar's tyranny.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 1 Scene 3- Summary

THE BAD OMENS

On the night of March 14, a terrible storm brings different reactions. Casca believes that the storm and other omens mean that the future will bring evil.

Cassius believes that these same signs mean that Caesar must be stopped. The two agree that Caesar must not be allowed to continue to rule, and when Cinna joins them, they plot to convince Brutus to join their conspiracy.

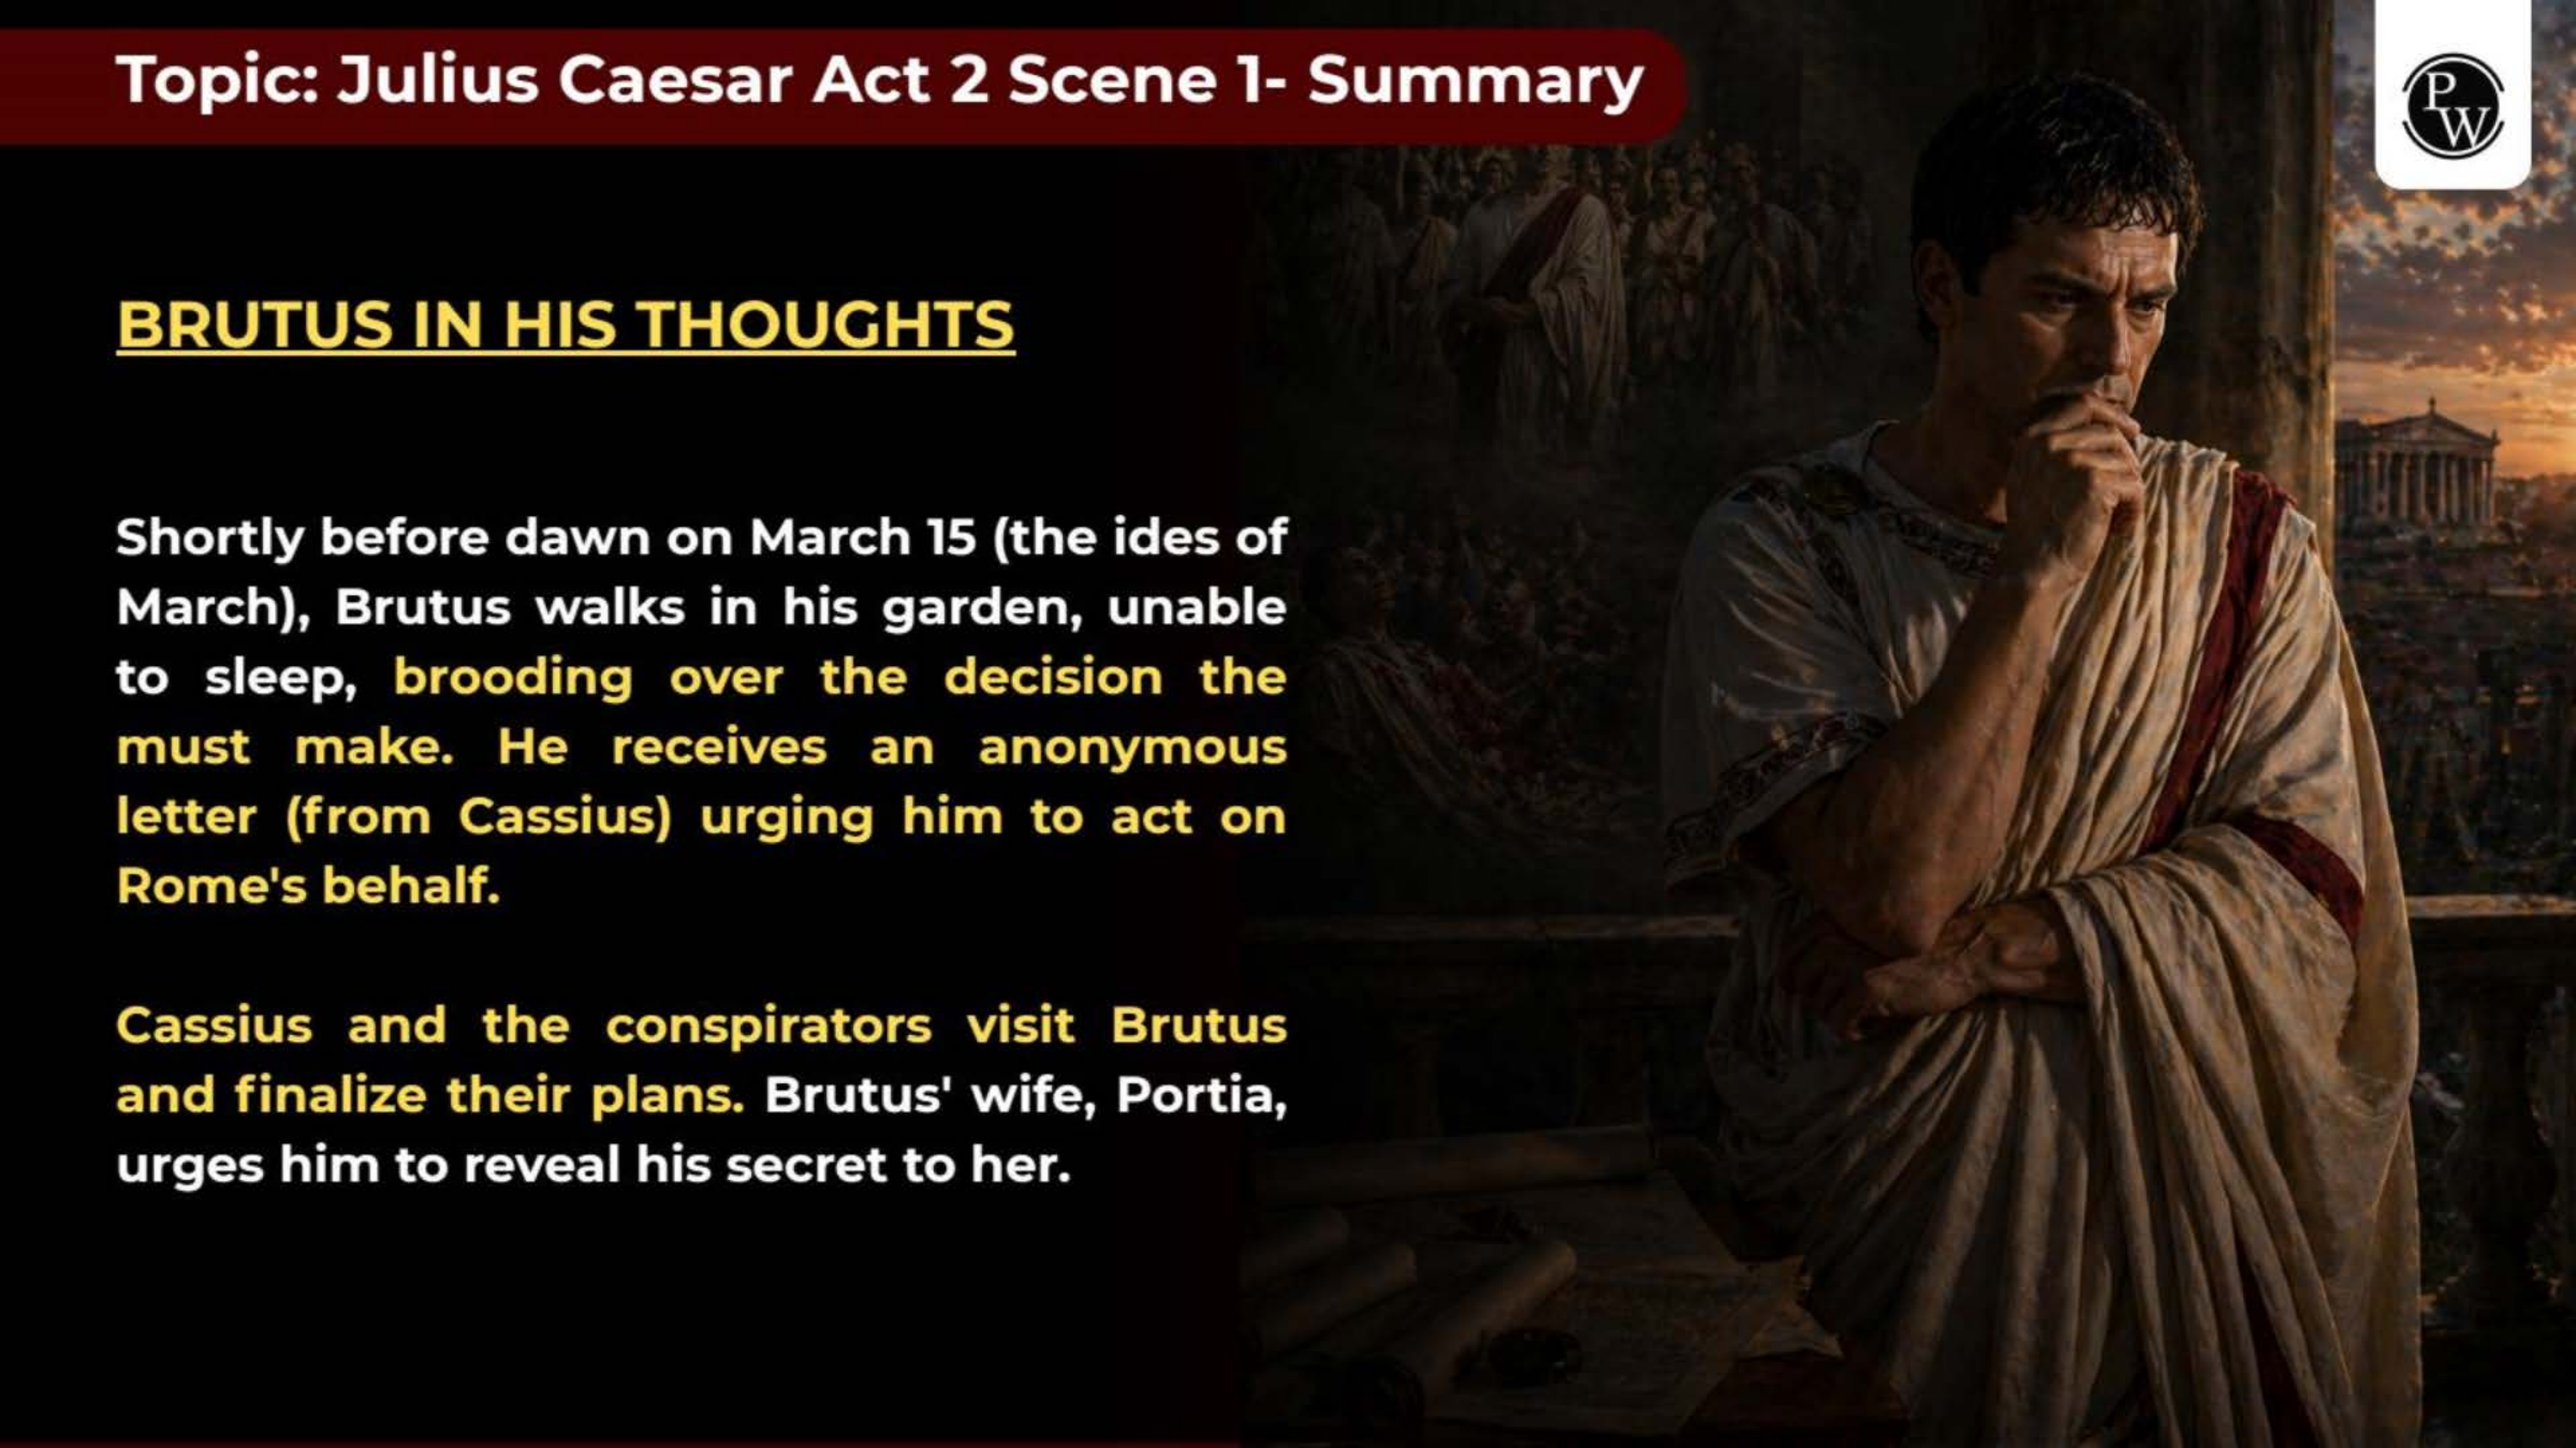

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 2 Scene 1- Summary

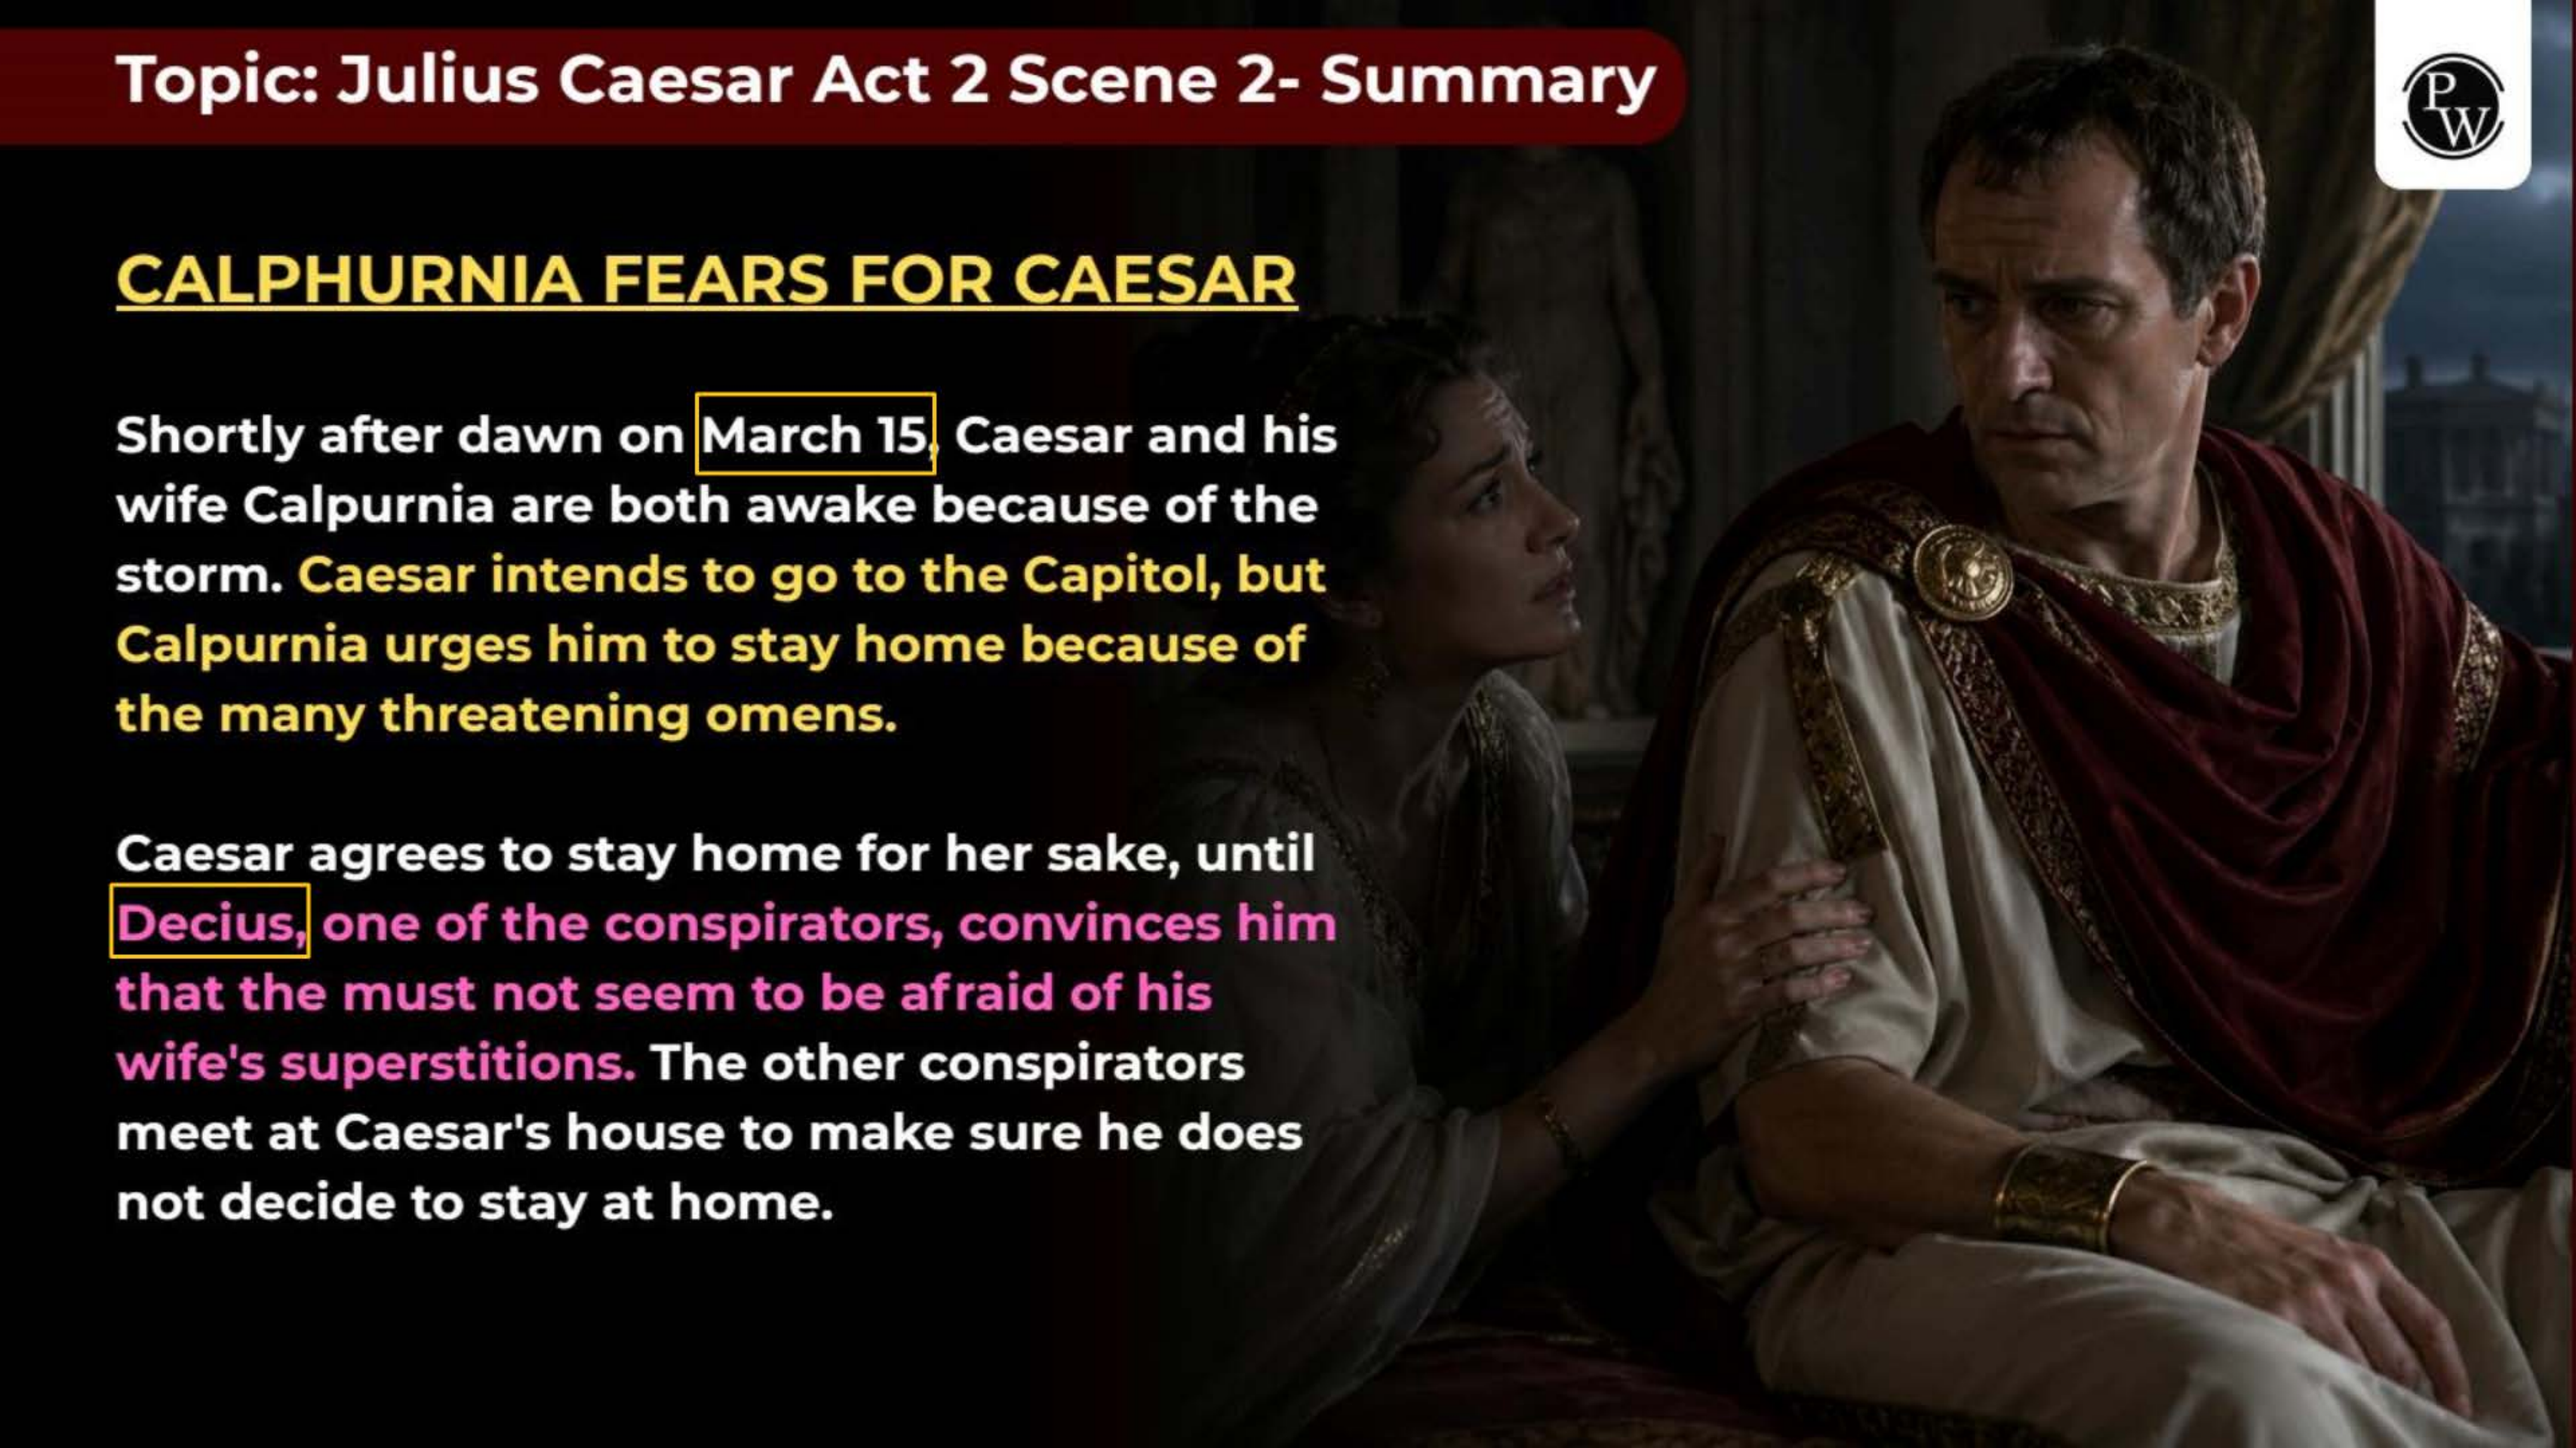

BRUTUS IN HIS THOUGHTS

Shortly before dawn on March 15 (the ides of March), Brutus walks in his garden, unable to sleep, brooding over the decision the must make. He receives an anonymous letter (from Cassius) urging him to act on Rome's behalf.

Cassius and the conspirators visit Brutus and finalize their plans. Brutus' wife, Portia, urges him to reveal his secret to her.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 2 Scene 2- Summary

CALPHURNIA FEARS FOR CAESAR

Shortly after dawn on March 15, Caesar and his wife Calpurnia are both awake because of the storm. Caesar intends to go to the Capitol, but Calpurnia urges him to stay home because of the many threatening omens.

Caesar agrees to stay home for her sake, until Decius, one of the conspirators, convinces him that the must not seem to be afraid of his wife's superstitions. The other conspirators meet at Caesar's house to make sure he does not decide to stay at home.

Act-2

ARTEMIDORUS' WARNING FOR CAESAR

Artemidorus, one of Caesar's supporters, has learned about the plot against Caesar. He reads a letter of warning he has written, then waits in the street for Caesar to pass by.

Portia's Instructions To Lucius

Servant

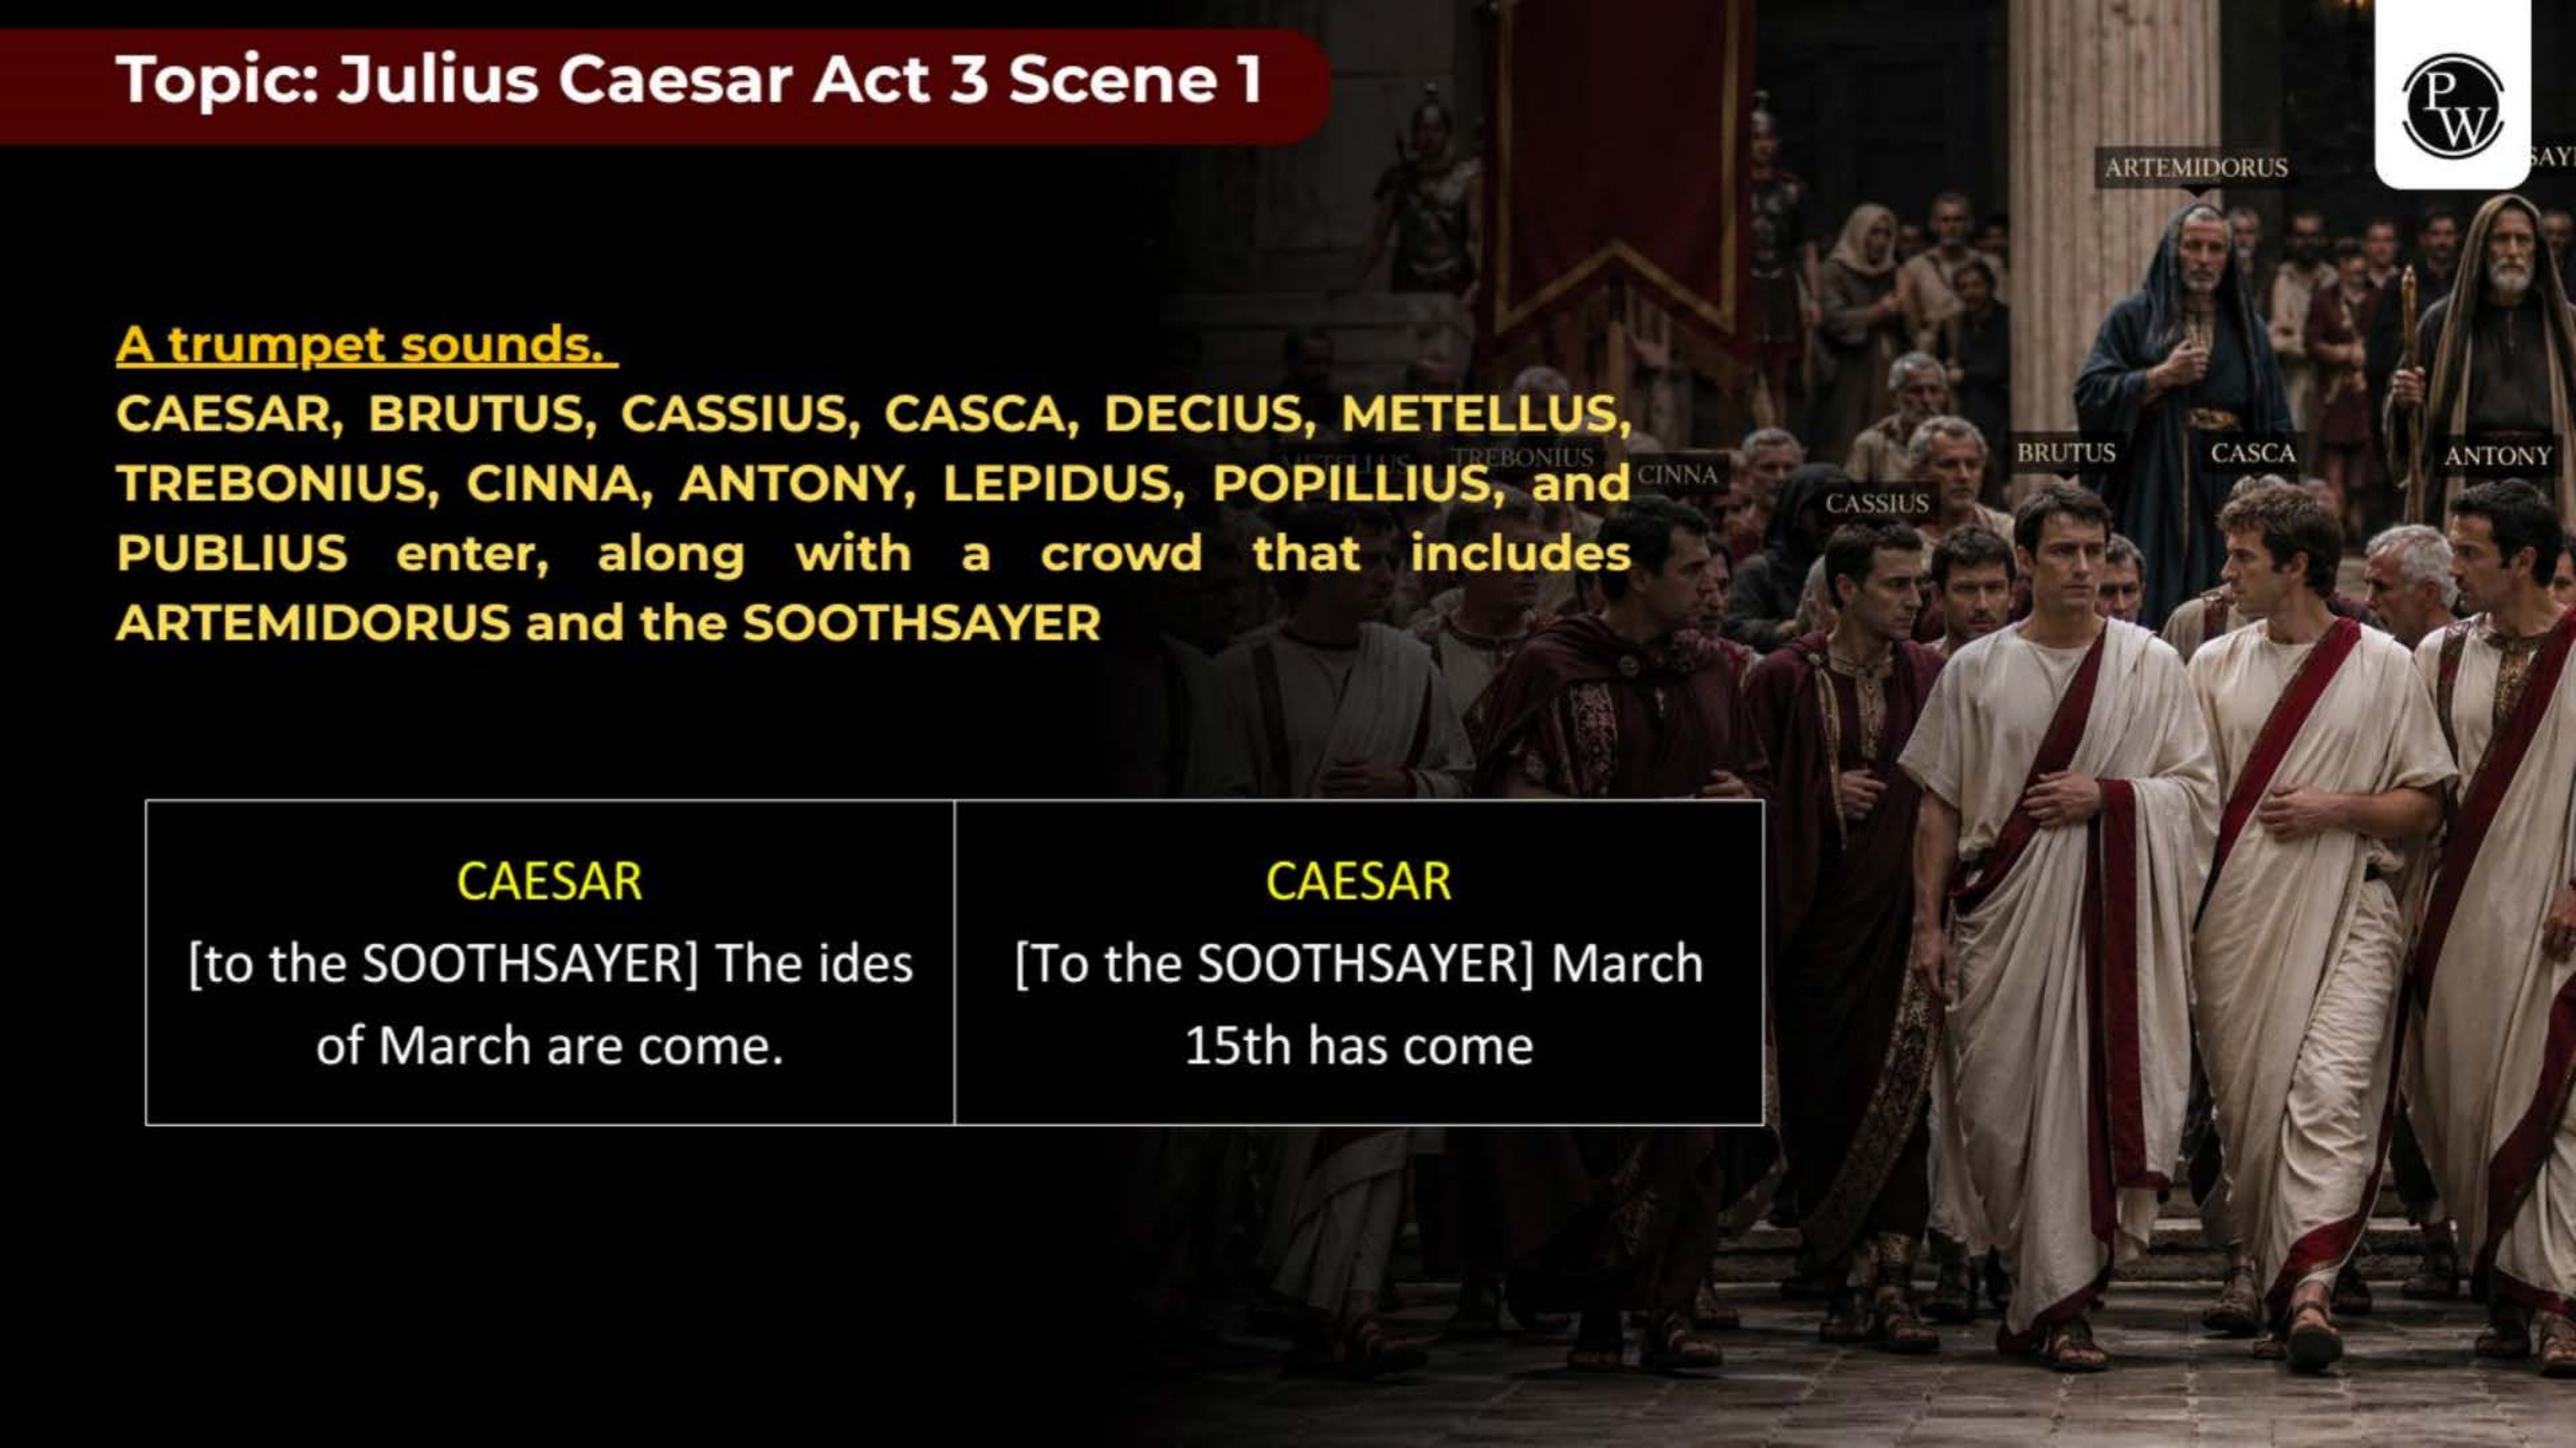

A soothsayer enters and says that he is on his way to see Caesar enter the Senate House. Portia inquires if he knows of any plans to harm Caesar, and he answers only that he fears what may happen to Caesar. He then leaves to seek a place from which he can speak to Caesar. Portia sends Lucius to give her greetings to Brutus and to tell him that she is in good spirits, and then to report back immediately to her.

ACT 3 SCENE 1

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

A trumpet sounds.

CAESAR, BRUTUS, CASSIUS, CASCA, DECIUS, METELLUS, TREBONIUS, CINNA, ANTONY, LEPIDUS, POPILLIUS, and PUBLIUS enter, along with a crowd that includes ARTEMIDORUS and the SOOTHSAYER

CAESAR [to the SOOTHSAYER] The ides of March are come.	CAESAR [To the SOOTHSAYER] March 15th has come

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

Soothsayer Ay, Caesar, but not gone.	Soothsayer Yes, Caesar, but the day is not over.
Artemidorus [offering his letter] Hail, Caesar! Read this schedule.	Artemidorus [offering his letter] Hail, Caesar! Read this letter.
Decius [offering CAESAR another paper] Trebonius doth desire you to o'er-read, At your best leisure, this his humble suit.	Decius [Offering CAESAR another paper] Trebonius would like you to read his humble request for help, when you have the time.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

Artemidorus O Caesar, read mine first, for mine's a suit. Read it, great Caesar.	Artemidorus Oh, Caesar, read mine first, for my letter actually pertains to you. Read it, great Caesar.
Caesar What touches us ourself shall be last served.	Caesar I will leave whatever pertains to me for last.
Artemidorus Delay not, Caesar. Read it instantly.	Artemidorus Don't delay, Caesar. Read it immediately.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

CAESAR and the crowd with him go up to the senate house.

Popillius [to CASSIUS] I wish your enterprise today may thrive.	Popillius [To CASSIUS] I hope your efforts succeed today.
Cassius What enterprise, Popillius?	Cassius What efforts, Popillius?
Popillius Fare you well.	Popillius Good luck.

POPILLIUS approaches CAESAR.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

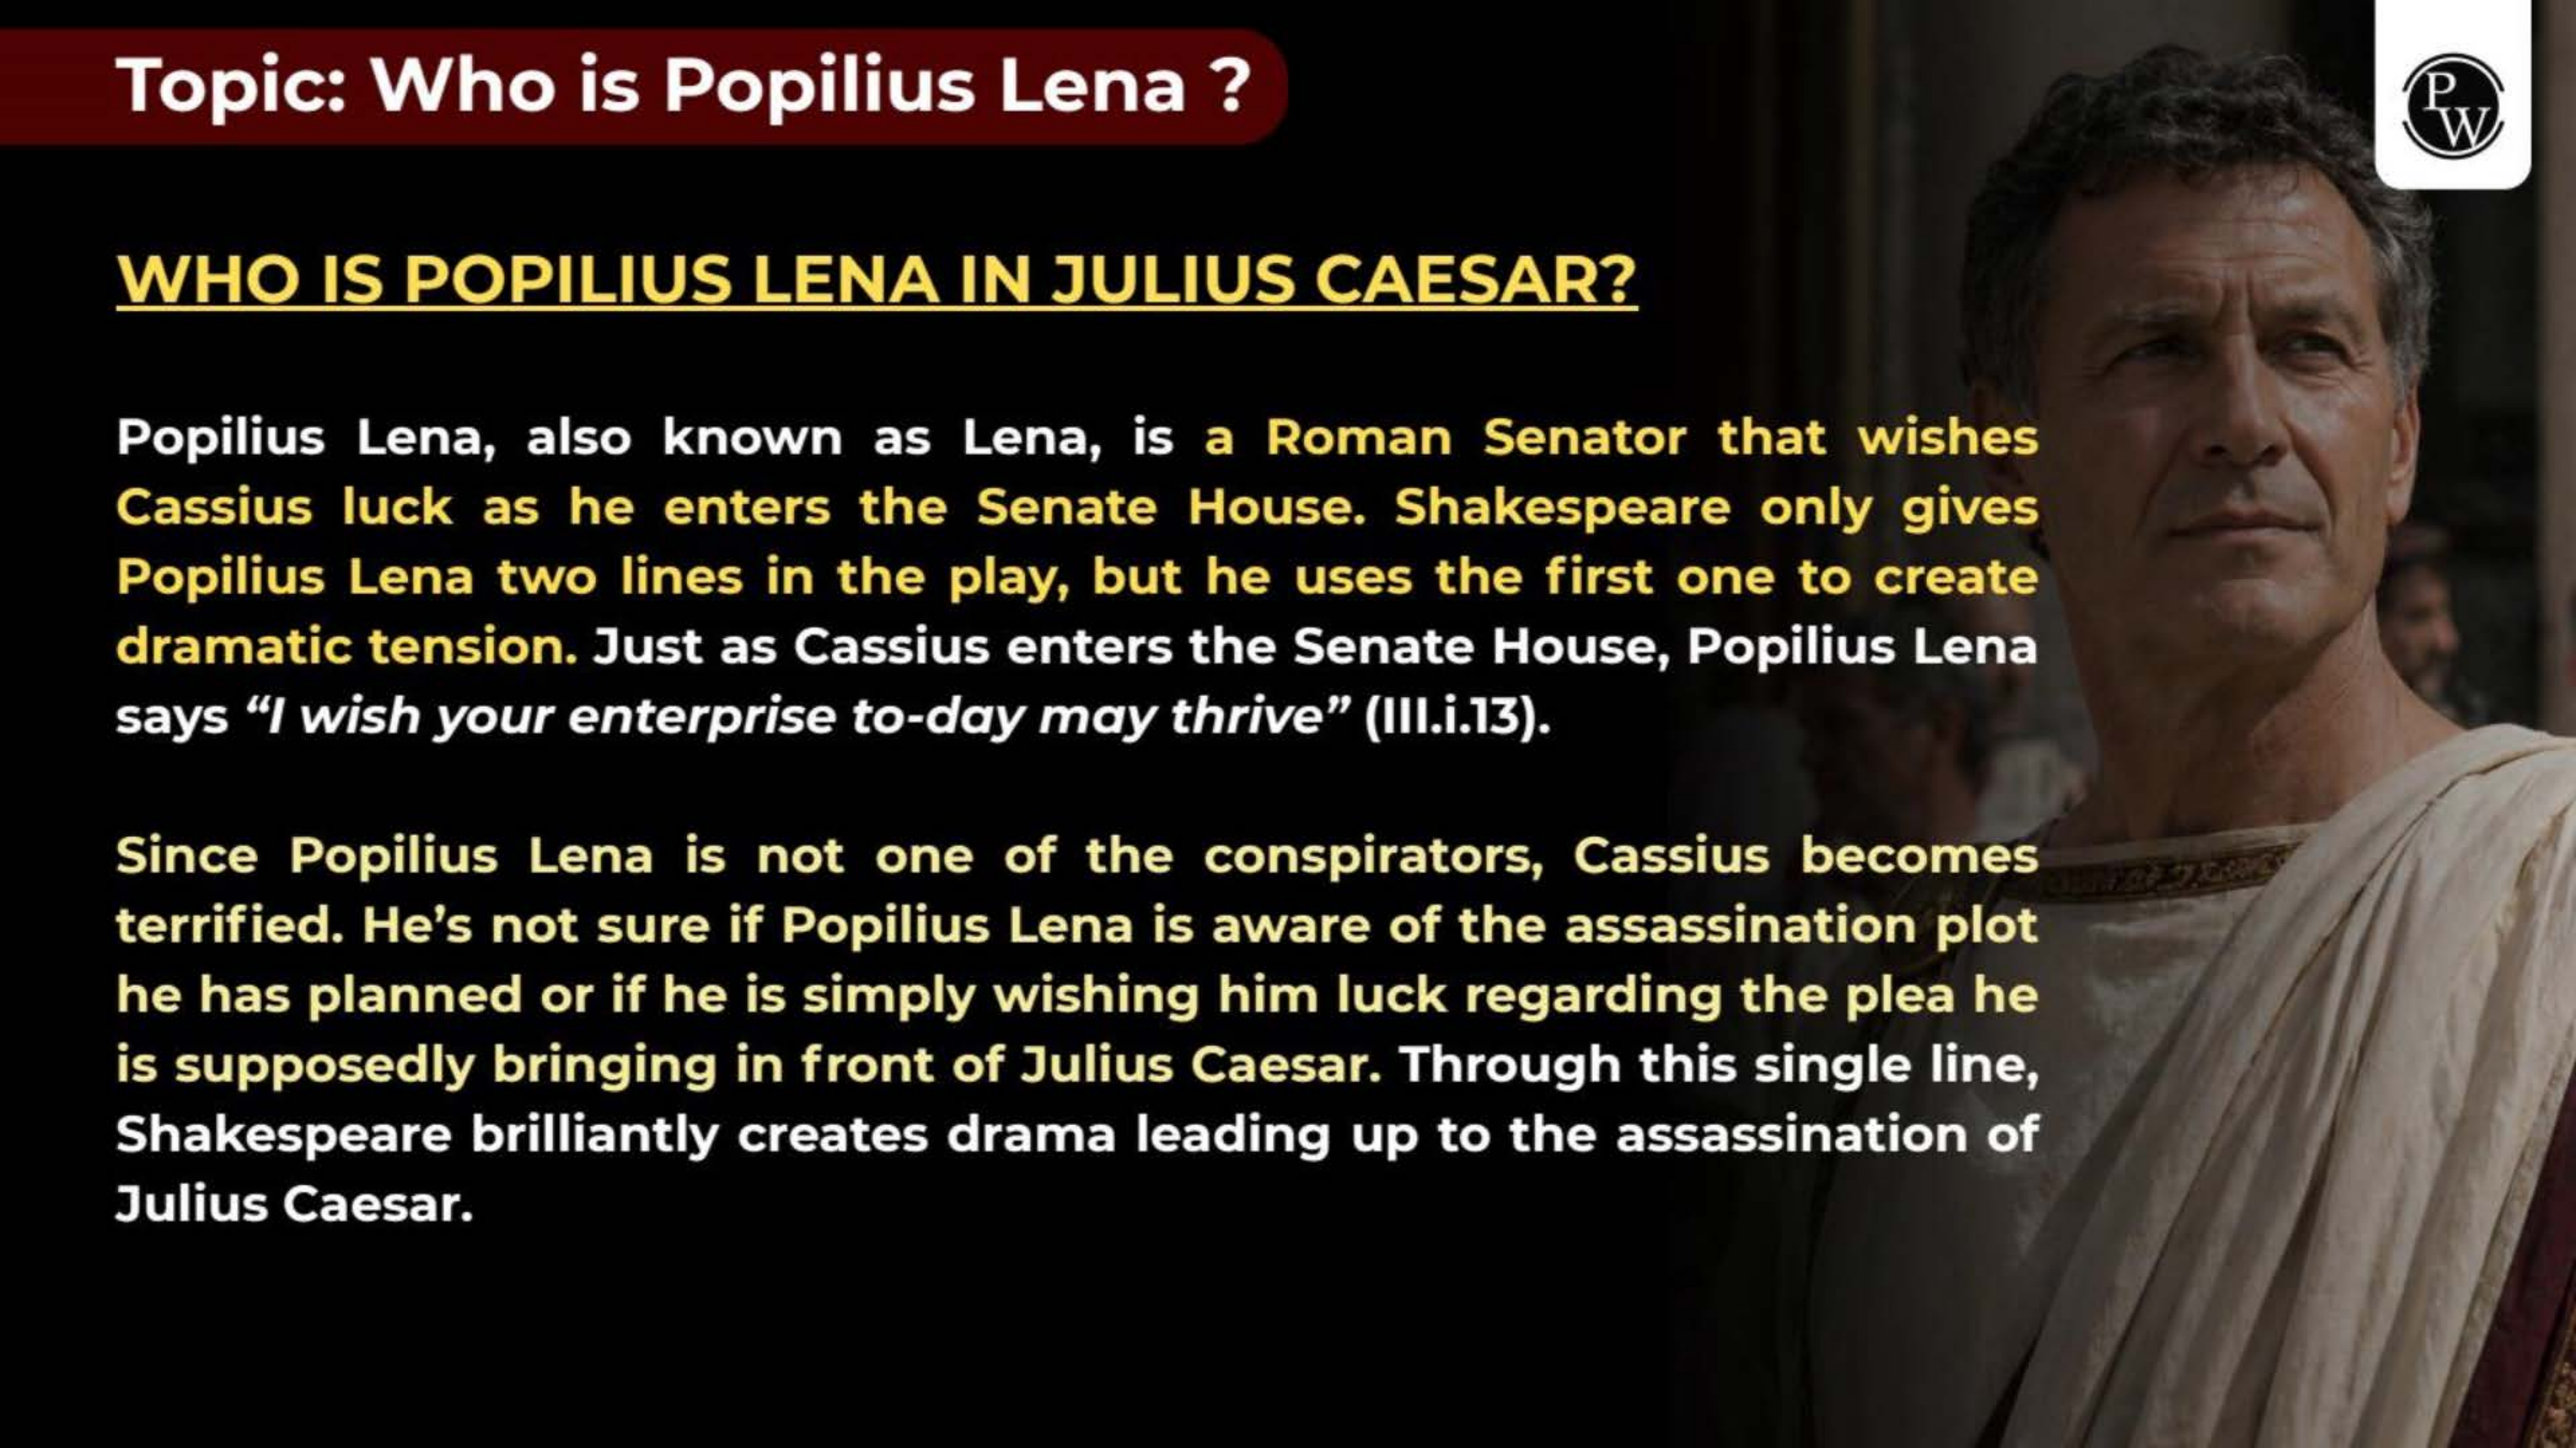

Brutus [to CASSIUS] What said Popillius Lena?	Brutus [To CASSIUS] What did Popillius Lena say?
Cassius [aside to BRUTUS] He wished today our enterprise might thrive. I fear our purpose is discovered.	Cassius [To BRUTUS so that only he can hear] He wished that our efforts would succeed today. I'm afraid our plans have been discovered.
Brutus Look how he makes to Caesar. Mark him.	Brutus Look, he's approaching Caesar. Watch him.

Topic: Who is Popilius Lena ?

WHO IS POPILIUS LENA IN JULIUS CAESAR?

Popilius Lena, also known as Lena, is a Roman Senator that wishes Cassius luck as he enters the Senate House. Shakespeare only gives Popilius Lena two lines in the play, but he uses the first one to create dramatic tension. Just as Cassius enters the Senate House, Popilius Lena says "I wish your enterprise to-day may thrive" (III.i.13).

Since Popilius Lena is not one of the conspirators, Cassius becomes terrified. He's not sure if Popilius Lena is aware of the assassination plot he has planned or if he is simply wishing him luck regarding the plea he is supposedly bringing in front of Julius Caesar. Through this single line, Shakespeare brilliantly creates drama leading up to the assassination of Julius Caesar.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

Cassius [To BRUTUS] Casca, be sudden, for we fear prevention —Brutus, what shall be done? If this be known, Cassius or Caesar never shall turn back, For I will slay myself.	Cassius [To BRUTUS] Be quick, Casca, because we're afraid our plans might be stopped. Brutus, what will we do? If our plan is known, either Caesar or I will die, because I'll kill myself if I can't kill him.

Topic: MCQ

When Caesar and his group arrive at the senate, who is worried that the assassination plot has been discovered?

A) Casca

B) Brutus

C) Trebonius

D) Cassius

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

Brutus Cassius, be constant. Popillius Lena speaks not of our purposes For, look, he smiles, and Caesar doth not change.	Brutus Cassius, be calm. Popillius Lena isn't telling Caesar about our plot. Look, he's smiling, and Caesar's expression hasn't changed.
Cassius Trebonius knows his time. For, look you, Brutus. He draws Mark Antony out of the way.	Cassius Trebonius knows what he should do. Look, Brutus, he's guiding Mark Antony out of the way.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

WHO IS METELLUS CIMBER?

Metellus Cimber is one of the conspirators against Caesar. He suggests Ligarius as another possible member of their cause.

He is charged with begging Caesar for his brother's repeal, thereby giving the conspirators the opportunity to surround Caesar before killing him.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

Decius Where is Metellus Cimber? Let him go And presently prefer his suit to Caesar.	Decius Where's Metellus Cimber? He should go now to present his petition to Caesar.
Brutus He is addressed. Press near and second him.	Brutus They're speaking to him. Move up close and second his petition.
Cinna Casca, you are the first that rears your hand.	Cinna Casca, you raise your hand first.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

Caesar Are we all ready? What is now amiss That Caesar and his senate must redress?	Caesar Are we all ready? What are the problems that Caesar and his senate should deal with?
Metellus Most high, most mighty, and most puissant Caesar, Metellus Cimber throws before thy seat An humble heart—	Metellus [Kneeling] Most high, most mighty, and most powerful Caesar, Metellus Cimber kneels before you with a humble heart—
Caesar I must prevent thee, Cimber.	Caesar I must stop you, Cimber.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 1

These couchings and these lowly courtesies Might fire the blood of ordinary men And turn preordinance and first decree into the law of children.	Your kneeling and overly humble courtesies might flatter ordinary men to turn Roman law into some kind of child's game.
Be not fond, To think that Caesar bears such rebel blood That will be thawed from the true quality With that which melteth fools	But don't be so foolish as to think that you can influence Caesar to do something that is not right through the tricks that persuade fools

—I mean, sweet words, low-crookèd curtsies, and base spaniel fawning. Thy brother by decree is banishèd.	—flattery, low bows, and pathetic dog-like fawning. Your brother was banished by decree.
If thou dost bend and pray and fawn for him, I spurn thee like a cur out of my way. Know, Caesar doth not wrong, nor without cause Will he be satisfied.	If you kneel and beg and flatter for him, I'll kick you like a dog out of my way. Know that Caesar does not punish him without good reason, and will not give him what he wants without good reason.
