Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ANTONY

Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears. I come to bury Caesar, not to praise him. The evil that men do lives after them; The good is oft interrèd with their bones. often buried

ANTONY

Friends, Romans, countrymen: give me a moment of your attention. I've come here to bury Caesar, not to praise him.

The evil that men do is remembered after they die, but the good is often buried with their bones.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

So let it be with Caesar. The noble Brutus Hath told you Caesar was ambitious. If it were so, it was a grievous fault, And grievously hath Caesar answered it.	May it be that way with Caesar. The noble Brutus told you that Caesar was ambitious. If that's true, it's a terrible fault—and Caesar has paid terribly for it.
Here, under leave of Brutus and the rest— For Brutus is an honorable man; So are they all, all honorable men— Come I to speak in Caesar's funeral.	Now, with the permission of Brutus and the others—because Brutus is an honorable man, as all the others are honorable men—I have come to speak at Caesar's funeral.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

How did Antony proof that Caesar was not ambitious?

He was my friend, faithful and just to me.	He was my friend. He was loyal and fair to me.
But Brutus says he was ambitious, And Brutus is an honorable man. He hath brought many captives home to Rome Whose ransoms did the general coffers fill.	But Brutus says he was ambitious, and Brutus is an honorable man. He brought many captives home to Rome whose filled the public treasury.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

Did this in Caesar seem ambitious? When that the poor have cried, Caesar hath wept. Ambition should be made of sterner stuff.	Did Caesar seem ambitious when he did this? When the poor cried, Caesar cried. Ambition shouldn't be so tender-hearted.
Yet Brutus says he was ambitious, And Brutus is an honorable man. You all did see that on the Lupercal I thrice presented him a kingly crown, Which he did thrice refuse.	Yet Brutus says he was ambitious, and Brutus is an honorable man. You all saw that on the feast day of Lupercal, I offered Caesar a king's crown three times. And all three times he refused it.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

Was this ambition? Yet Brutus says he was ambitious, And, sure, he is an honorable man.	Was that ambition? Yet Brutus says he was ambitious. And, of course, Brutus is an honorable man.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

I speak not to disprove what Brutus spoke, But here I am to speak what I do know. You all did love him once, not without cause. What cause withholds you then to mourn for him?	I do not say this to disprove what Brutus has said, but to speak about what I know. You all loved Caesar once, and not without reason. So what reason stops you from mourning him?

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

O judgment! Thou art fled to brutish beasts, And men have lost their reason. Bear with me. My heart is in the coffin there with Caesar, And I must pause till it come back to me. [weeps]	Oh, gods! You have become brutish beasts, and men have lost their reason! Apologies for that outburst. My heart is in the coffin there with Caesar, and I must pause until it returns to me. [He weeps]
FIRST PLEBEIAN Methinks there is much reason in his sayings.	FIRST PLEBEIAN I think that a lot of what he's saying makes sense.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

SECOND PLEBEIAN If thou consider rightly of the matter, Caesar has had great wrong.	SECOND PLEBEIAN If you think about it the right way, Caesar has been highly wronged.
THIRD PLEBEIAN Has he, masters? I fear there will a worse come in his place.	THIRD PLEBEIAN Do you think so gentleman? I worry that someone worse than Caesar will come to replace him.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FOURTH PLEBEIAN Marked ye his words? He would not take the crown. Therefore 'tis certain he was not ambitious. it is sure	FOURTH PLEBEIAN Did you listen to Antony's words? Caesar wouldn't take the crown. This proves he wasn't ambitious.
FIRST PLEBEIAN If it be found so, some will dear abide it.	FIRST PLEBEIAN If it can be proven that he wasn't, certain people will pay dearly for all this.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

SECOND PLEBEIAN Poor soul! His eyes are red as fire with weeping. Simile	SECOND PLEBEIAN Poor man! Antony's eyes are as red as fire from weeping.
THIRD PLEBEIAN There's not a nobler man in Rome than Antony.	THIRD PLEBEIAN There's not a nobler man than Antony in Rome.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FOURTH PLEBEIAN Now mark him. He begins again to speak.	FOURTH PLEBEIAN Now pay attention to him. He's starting to speak again.
ANTONY But yesterday the word of Caesar might Have stood against the world. Now lies he there, And none so poor to do him reverence.	ANTONY Just yesterday, no one in the world would have stood against Caesar's commands. Now he lies there dead, and no one is so humble enough to mourn his death.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

O masters, if I were disposed to stir Your hearts and minds to mutiny and rage, I should do Brutus wrong, and Cassius wrong— Who, you all know, are honorable men.	Oh! my friends, if I wanted to provoke your hearts and minds to rebellion and fury, I would be doing wrong to Brutus and Cassius—who, as you all know, are honorable men.
I will not do them wrong. I rather choose To wrong the dead, to wrong myself and you, Than I will wrong such honorable men.	I will not do them wrong. I choose rather to wrong the dead, and wrong myself and you, than wrong such honorable men.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

But here's a parchment with the seal of Caesar. I found it in his closet. 'Tis his will.	But here's a document with Caesar's seal on it. I found it in his cupboard. It's his will.
Let but the commons hear this testament—Which, pardon me, I do not mean to read—	If the public were to know what was in this will—which, excuse me, I don't plan on reading to you—

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

And they would go and kiss dead Caesar's wounds And dip their napkins in his sacred blood, Yea, beg a hair of him for memory,	they would go and kiss dead Caesar's wounds, dip your handkerchiefs in his noble blood, and even beg one of his hairs to remember him by.
And, dying, mention it within their wills, Bequeathing it as a rich legacy Unto their issue.	they would go and kiss dead Caesar's wounds, dip your handkerchiefs in his noble blood, and even beg one of his hairs to remember him by.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FOURTH PLEBEIAN We'll hear the will. Read it, Mark Antony!	FOURTH PLEBEIAN We want to hear the will. Read it, Mark Antony!
ALL The will, the will! We will hear Caesar's will.	ALL The will, the will! We want to hear Caesar's will.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ANTONY Have patience, gentle friends. I must not read it. It is not meet you know how Caesar loved you. You are not wood, you are not stones, but men.	ANTONY Have patience, noble friends. I must not read it. It's not right for you to know how much Caesar loved you. You're not wood, you're not stones. You’re men.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

And, being men, bearing the will of Caesar, It will inflame you, it will make you mad. 'Tis good you know not that you are his heirs. For, if you should— Oh, what would come of it!	And, being men, if you knew what was in Caesar's will, it would anger you. It will drive you crazy. It's better that you not know that you are his heirs. Because, if you did know—oh, what would happen!
FOURTH PLEBEIAN Read the will. We'll hear it, Antony. You shall read us the will, Caesar's will.	FOURTH PLEBEIAN Read the will. We want to hear it, Antony. You must read us the will, Caesar's will.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ANTONY Will you be patient? Will you stay awhile? I have o'ershot myself to tell you of it.	ANTONY Will you be patient? Will you wait a while? I've said too much in telling you about it.
I fear I wrong the honorable men Whose daggers have stabbed Caesar. I do fear it.	I'm afraid that I wrong the honorable men whose daggers have stabbed Caesar. I really fear it.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FOURTH PLEBEIAN They were traitors! "Honorable men"!	FOURTH PLEBEIAN They were traitors, these so-called "honorable men!"
ALL The will! The testament!	ALL The will! The will! We will listen to Caesar's will.
SECOND PLEBEIAN They were villains, murderers. The will! Read the will!	SECOND PLEBEIAN They were villains, murderers. The will! Read the will!

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ANTONY You will compel me, then, to read the will?	ANTONY So you'll force me to read the will?
Then make a ring about the corpse of Caesar, And let me show you him that made the will. Shall I descend? And will you give me leave?	Then form a circle around Caesar's dead body, and let me show you the man who made this will. Shall I come down? Will you allow me to?
ALL Come down.	ALL Come down.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

SECOND PLEBEIAN Descend.	SECOND PLEBEIAN Come down.
THIRD PLEBEIAN You shall have leave.	THIRD PLEBEIAN We'll allow you.
FOURTH PLEBEIAN A ring! Stand round.	FOURTH PLEBEIAN A circle! Form a circle!

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FIRST PLEBEIAN Stand from the hearse. Stand from the body	FIRST PLEBEIAN Stand back from the coffin. Stand back from the body.
FIRST PLEBEIAN Stand back from the coffin. Stand back from the body.	SECOND PLEBEIAN Make room for Antony, most noble Antony!
ANTONY Nay, press not so upon me. Stand far off.	ANTONY No, don't crowd to close to me. Stand away from the body.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ALL Stand back. Room! Bear back	ALL Stand back. Give him room. Move back.
ANTONY If you have tears, prepare to shed them now.	ANTONY If you have tears, prepare to shed them now.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

You all do know this mantle. I remember The first time ever Caesar put it on. 'Twas on a summer's evening in his tent, That day he overcame the Nervii.	You all know this cloak. I remember the first time Caesar ever put it on. It was a summer evening in his tent, on the day he defeated the Nervii warriors.
Look, in this place ran Cassius' dagger through. See what a rent the envious Casca made. Through this the well-belovèd Brutus stabbed.	Look, this is the place where Cassius's dagger cut through it. See the rip that the envious Casca made. The much beloved Brutus stabbed him through this hole.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

And as he plucked his cursèd steel away, Mark how the blood of Caesar followed it, As rushing out of doors, to be resolved If Brutus so unkindly knocked, or no.	And when Brutus yanked out his cursed dagger, see how Caesar's blood followed after it—as if rushing out a door to see for sure if it was Brutus knocking so rudely.
For Brutus, as you know, was Caesar's angel. Judge, O you gods, how dearly Caesar loved him! This was the most-unkindest cut of all.	For Brutus was Caesar's angel, as you know. Oh gods, how dearly Caesar loved him! This was the cruelest cut of all.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

For when the noble Caesar saw him stab, Ingratitude, more-strong than traitors' arms, Quite vanquished him.	When the noble Caesar saw him stab, it was Brutus' ingratitude more than the traitors' weapons that overwhelmed him.
Then burst his mighty heart, And, in his mantle muffling up his face, Even at the base of Pompey's statue, Which all the while ran blood, great Caesar fell.	Then his mighty heart burst. And with his face covered by his cloak—which was dripping with blood—great Caesar fell at the base of Pompey's statue.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

O, what a fall was there, my countrymen! Then I, and you, and all of us fell down, Whilst bloody treason flourished over us.	Oh, what a fall it was, my countrymen! Then I, and you, all of us fell down, while bloody treason celebrated its victory over us.
Oh, now you weep, and, I perceive, you feel The dint of pity. These are gracious drops.	Oh, now you weep, and I see you feel the pain of pity. These tears are honorable.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

Kind souls, what, weep you when you but behold Our Caesar's vesture wounded? Look you here, Here is himself, marred, as you see, with traitors. [lifts up CAESAR's mantle]	Good men, do you weep when all you're looking at is Caesar's wounded cloak? Look right here, here is the man himself, battered by traitors, as you can see. [He lifts up CAESAR's cloak]

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FIRST PLEBEIAN O piteous spectacle!	FIRST PLEBEIAN Oh, what a heartbreaking sight!
SECOND PLEBEIAN O noble Caesar!	SECOND PLEBEIAN Oh, noble Caesar!
THIRD PLEBEIAN O woeful day!	THIRD PLEBEIAN Oh, what a sad day!
FOURTH PLEBEIAN O traitors, villains!	FOURTH PLEBEIAN Oh, traitors, villains!

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FIRST PLEBEIAN O most bloody sight!	FIRST PLEBEIAN Oh, most bloody sight!
SECOND PLEBEIAN We will be revenged.	SECOND PLEBEIAN We will get revenge.
ALL Revenge! About! Seek! Burn! Fire! Kill! Slay! Let not a traitor live!	ALL Revenge! Look around. Find them! Burn! Set fire! Kill! Slay! Leave no traitors alive!
ANTONY Stay, countrymen.	ANTONY Wait, countrymen.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ALL Revenge! About! Seek! Burn! Fire! Kill! Slay! Let not a traitor live!	ALL Revenge! Look around. Find them! Burn! Set fire! Kill! Slay! Leave no traitors alive!
ANTONY Stay, countrymen.	ANTONY Wait, countrymen.
FIRST PLEBEIAN Peace there! Hear the noble Antony.	FIRST PLEBEIAN Quiet there! Listen to the noble Antony.
SECOND PLEBEIAN We'll hear him. We'll follow him. We'll die with him.	SECOND PLEBEIAN We'll listen to him. We'll follow him. We'll die with him.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ANTONY Good friends, sweet friends! Let me not stir you up To such a sudden flood of mutiny. They that have done this deed are honorable.	ANTONY Good friends, sweet friends: don't let me stir you up to such a sudden surge of revolt. Those who have done this deed are honorable.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

What private griefs they have, alas, I know not, That made them do it. They are wise and honorable, And will, no doubt, with reasons answer you.	I don't know what personal grudges they had that made them do it. They are wise and honorable, and will give you reasons for their actions, without a doubt
I come not, friends, to steal away your hearts. I am no orator, as Brutus is, But, as you know me all, a plain blunt man That love my friend.	I am not here to steal your loyalty, friends. I'm no orator like Brutus. As you all know, I'm just a plain, blunt man who loved his friend.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

And that they know full well That gave me public leave to speak of him. For I have neither wit nor words nor worth, Action nor utterance nor the power of speech, To stir men's blood.	And those who gave me permission to speak know this very well. I don't have the cleverness, vocabulary, reputation, body language, or eloquence to stir men to passion.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

I only speak right on. I tell you that which you yourselves do know, Show you sweet Caesar's wounds, poor poor dumb mouths, And bid them speak for me.	I just say what I really think. I tell you what you already know. I show you sweet Caesar's wounds—those poor, poor, speechless mouths—and ask them to speak for me.
But were I Brutus, And Brutus Antony, there were an Antony Would ruffle up your spirits and put a tongue In every wound of Caesar that should move The stones of Rome to rise and mutiny.	But if I were Brutus—and Brutus were me—then that would be an Antony who would fill your spirits with rage, and put in each of Caesar's wounds a voice that would inspire even the stones in Rome to rise up and rebel.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ALL We'll mutiny.	ALL We'll revolt.
FIRST PLEBEIAN We'll burn the house of Brutus	FIRST PLEBEIAN We'll burn Brutus' house.
THIRD PLEBEIAN Away, then! Come, seek the conspirators.	THIRD PLEBEIAN Let's go, then! Come, find the conspirators!
ANTONY Yet hear me, countrymen. Yet hear me speak.	ANTONY Wait, and listen to me, countrymen.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ALL Peace, ho! Hear Antony. Most noble Antony!	ALL Quiet! Wait! Listen to Antony. Most noble Antony!
ANTONY Why, friends, you go to do you know not what. Wherein hath Caesar thus deserved your loves?	ANTONY Why, friends, you don't know what you're doing. What has Caesar done to deserve your love?
Alas, you know not. I must tell you then. You have forgot the will I told you of.	Alas, you don't know. I must tell you then. You've forgotten the will I told you about.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ALL Most true. The will! Let’s stay and hear the will.	ALL That's true. The will! Let’s stay and hear the will!
ANTONY Here is the will, and under Caesar’s seal To every Roman citizen he gives— To every several man—seventy-five drachmas	ANTONY Here’s the will, marked by Caesar’s seal. To every Roman citizen he gives—to every single man—seventy-five silver coins.

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

SECOND PLEBEIAN Most noble Caesar! We'll revenge his death.	SECOND PLEBEIAN Most noble Caesar! We'll revenge his death.
THIRD PLEBEIAN O royal Caesar!	THIRD PLEBEIAN Oh, royal Caesar!
THIRD PLEBEIAN Oh, royal Caesar!	ANTONY Listen to me with patience.
ALL Peace, ho!	ALL Quiet!

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

ANTONY Moreover, he hath left you all his walks, His private arbors and new-planted orchards, On this side Tiber.	ANTONY Moreover, he hath left you all his walks, His private arbors and new-planted orchards, On this side Tiber.
He hath left them you And to your heirs forever—common pleasures, To walk abroad and recreate yourselves. Here was a Caesar! When comes such another?	He has left them to you and to your heirs forever—public parks where you can wander and relax. Here was a Caesar! When will there be another like him?

Topic: Julius Caesar Act 3 Scene 2

FIRST PLEBEIAN Never, never.—Come, away, away! We'll burn his body in the holy place, And with the brands fire the traitors' houses. Take up the body.	FIRST PLEBEIAN Never, never.—Come, away, away! We'll burn his body in the holy place, And with the brands fire the traitors' houses. Take up the body.
