- Lord Curzon's tenure [1899–1905] marked with controversies.

- His act of partition of Bengal was considered as a hidden attack on Indian nationalism.
- Partition-announced on 20th July, 1905- implemented on 16th October, 1905.

Who put into effect the partition of Bengal?

(A) Lytton

(B) Hastings

(C) Wellington

(D) Curzon

- Bengal presidency was comprised of :
- Bengal, Bihar, Odisha, Chota Nagpur and some other remote areas- thickly populated- huge population of over 80 million.
- On July 20 , 1905 –Lord Curzon announced division of Bengal province into two provinces
- The scheme of partition was implemented on - 16 Oct 1905

Scheme of Division

Bengal → Eastern Bengal and Assam
→ Bengal

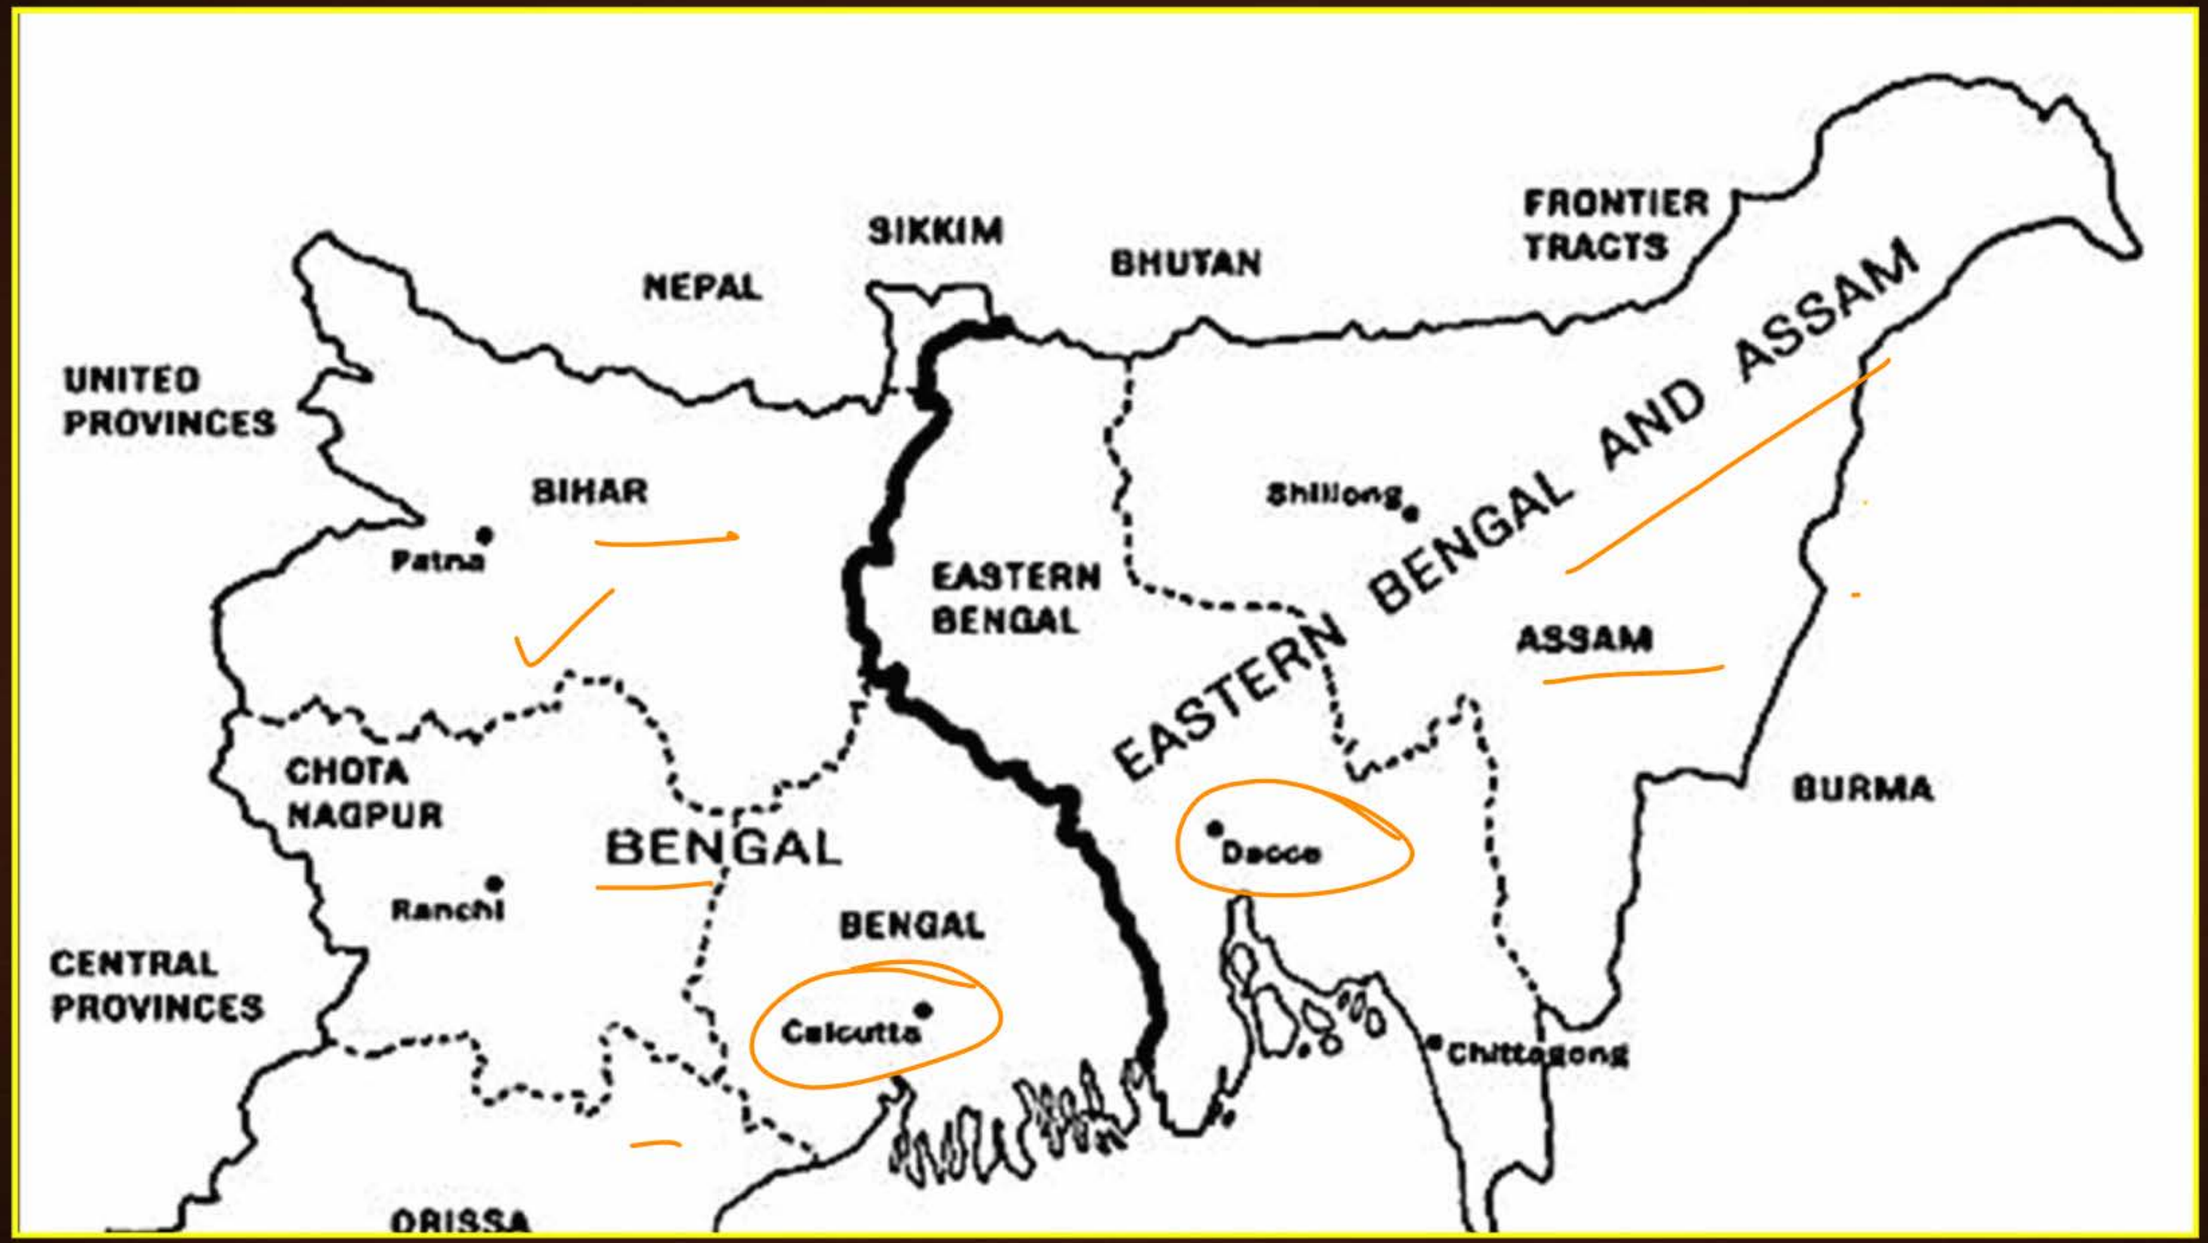

- First province- "Bengal"- included the western districts of Bengal proper, Bihar and Odisha- population 54 million, capital Calcutta- dominated by non-Bengalis with 31 million population out of 54 million.

54 million → 31 million Non-Bengalis

Result → Bengali → minority

- Second province 'Eastern Bengal and Assam'- included eastern districts of Bengal proper and Assam– population 31 million-capital Dacca– dominated by Bengali Muslims.

↳ Hindus → minority

Motive Behind Partition

PYQ

British Perspective

(Reason?)

- Partition –for efficient administration-open agenda
- Hidden agenda –Bengal centre of Indian nationalism –divided to stop growing nationalism and reduce Bengali influence
- Home secretary to the govt.(Risley)declared that partition was to weaken the rising opposition against the British

Indian Perspective

Knowingly

- Deliberate attempt of the British to divide the Bengalis on religious and territorial grounds- to disrupt and weaken the nationalism in Bengal.
- Reason –Administrative efficiency fake . Efficiency better achieved –if division on language basis .
- Public opinion not considered –hurt Bengali sentiments

What was the perspective of Indian nationalists about partition of Bengal by the British?

(A) To large to be administered by a single provincial government

(B) Policy of Divide and Rule

(C) Oriya speaking people, outside the territorial limits of Orissa, had to be brought under the administration of Bengal

(D) To show the strength of East Bengal

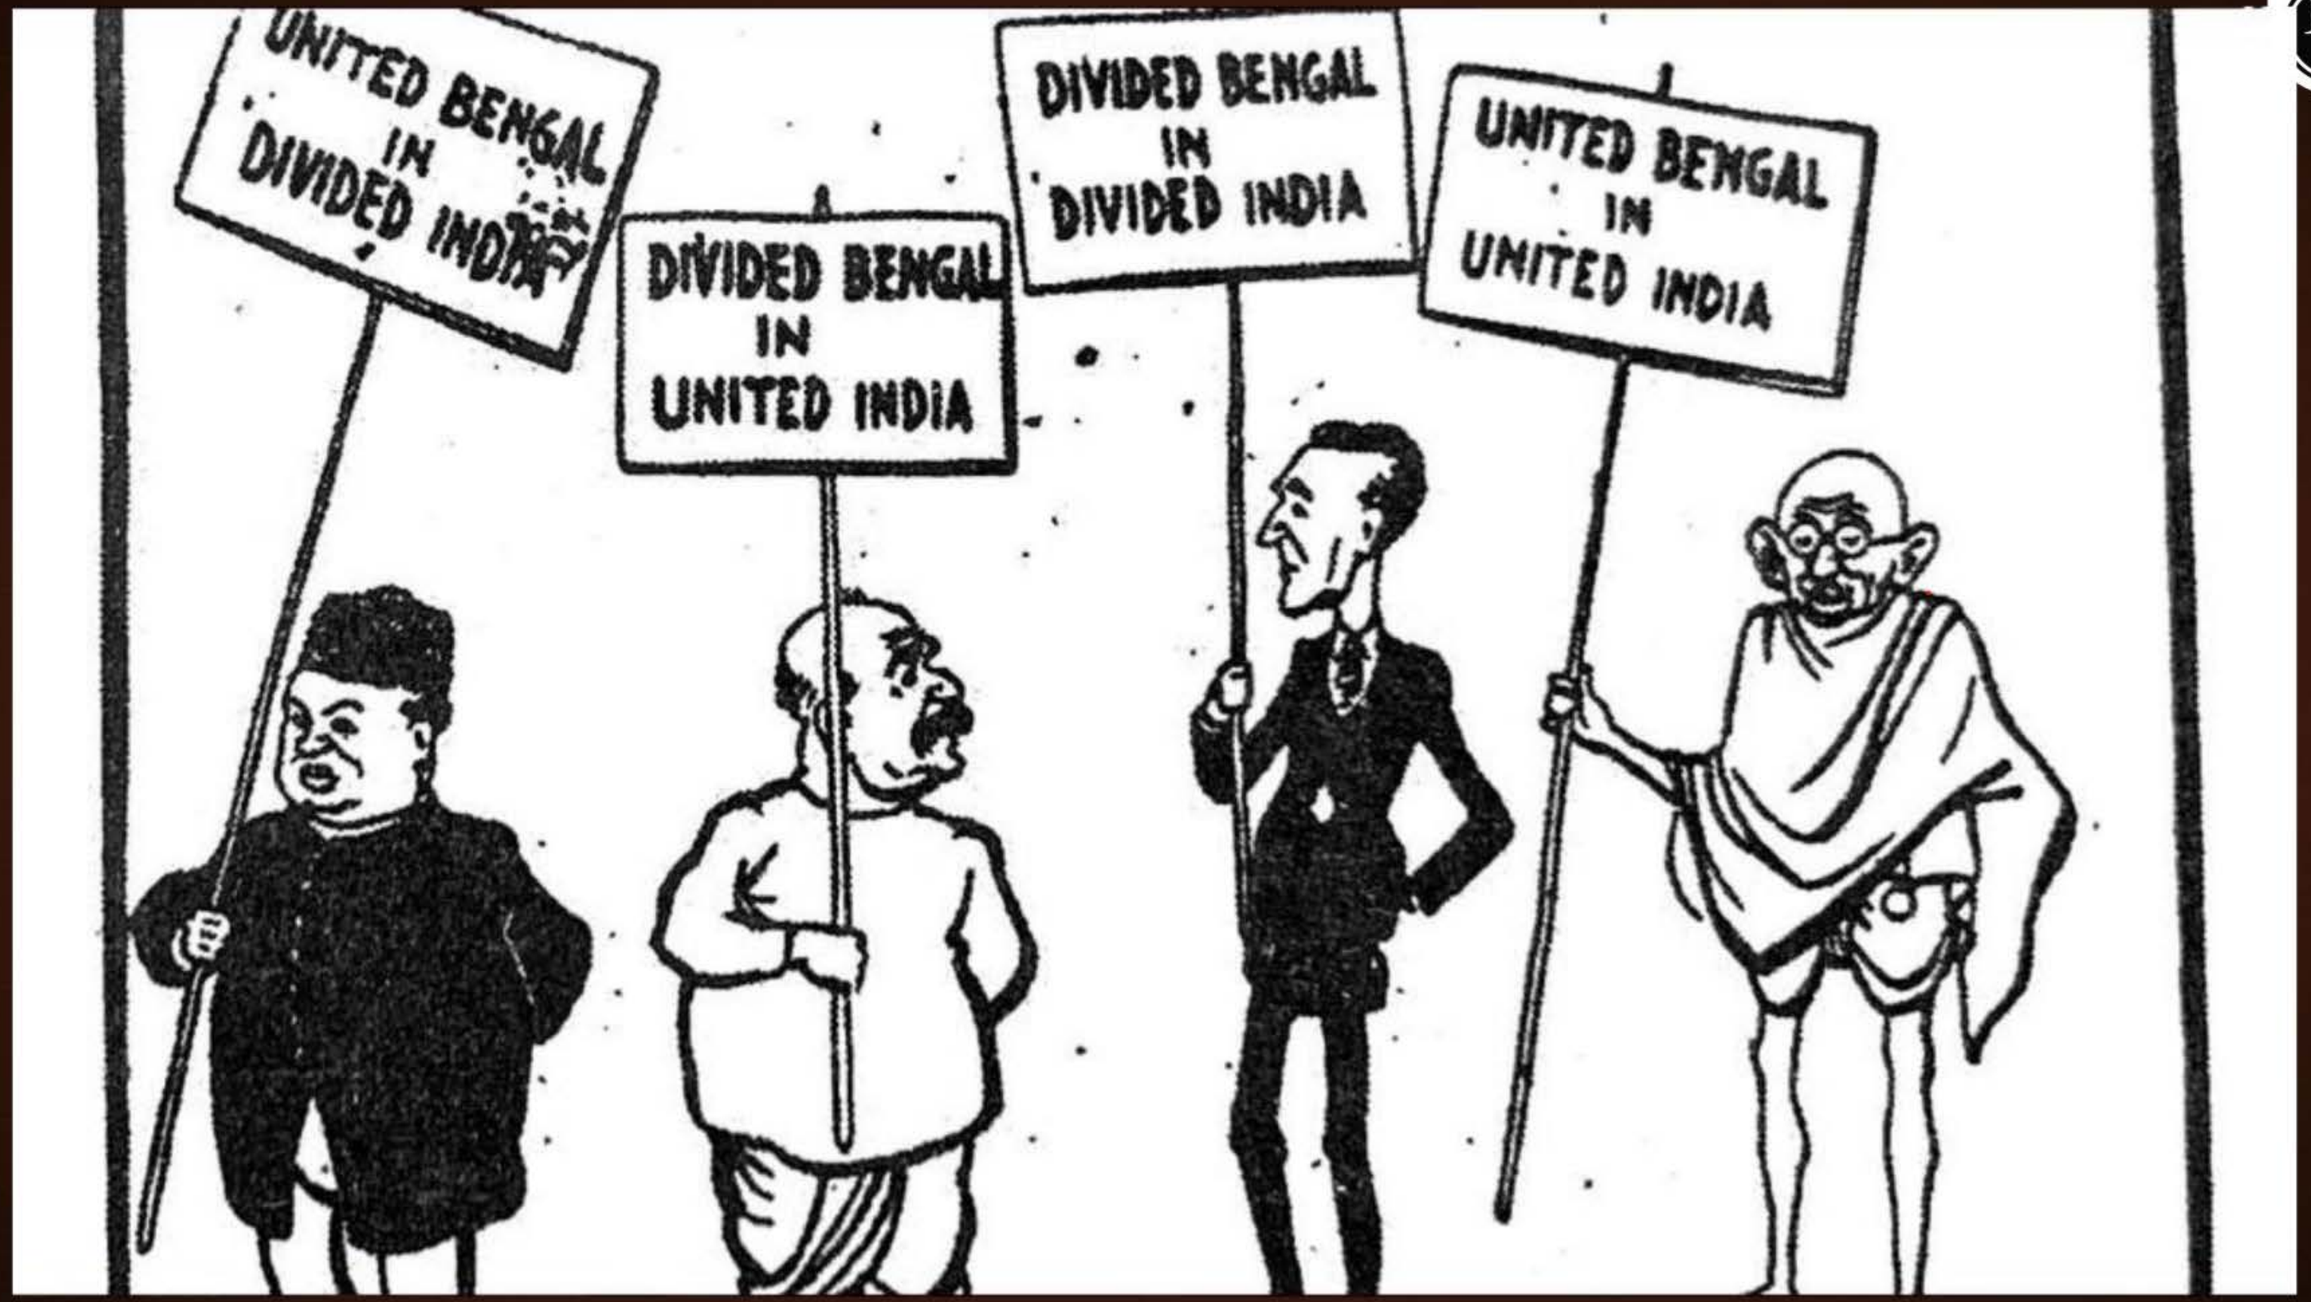

What was the main motive of the British to divide Bengal? (Real Reason)

(A) For better administration

(B) It was demanded by the people of Bengal

(C) Stop the rising tide of nationalism

(D) To make a separate country

Anti –Partition Movement

1. 7th Aug-1905-Anti Partition Movement Started .Massive demonstration-held at Town Hall , Calcutta

2. Brought people and political leaders together. INC and Bengali leaders opposed partition . Zamindars, merchants , lawyers ,women participated

3. Early nationalists and assertive nationalists worked together . Protest meetings held by – Surendranath Bannerjee , Krishna Kumar Mitra , Anand Mohan Bose etc.

4. Leaders used the newspapers like Bengali , Hitabdi ,Sanjibani etc. to criticise partition

5.16 Oct ,1905- day of partition- declared a day of national mourning in Bengal .People observed fasting – walked barefoot –bathed in Ganga. Streets filled –Vande Matram . Tagore composed –'Amar Sonar Bangla'. Hindu- Muslim tied Rakhis to symbolize unity

Sad

1. Partition of Bengal –Revoked in 1911. Swadeshi and Boycott became popular methods . Nationalist feelings increased .

2. New scheme of partition implemented on language basis

Outcome

4. Administrative Capital shifted from Bengal to Delhi in 1911 Influence of Assertive Nationalists increased as methods of Early Nationalists failed .

Bihar Odisha Assam

3. Hindi, Oriya and Assamese speaking states –separated from Bengal and made separate administrative units

'Amar Sonar Bangla' was written by-

(A) Rabindranath Tagore

(B) Aurobindo Gosh

(C) Dada Bhai Naoroji

(D) Gopal Krishna Gokhake

Assertion (A): The Partition of Bengal was revoked in 1911.

Reason (R): A new scheme of Partition of Bengal was implemented on the basis of size of population rather than on religion.

(A) Both A and R are true, and R is the correct explanation of A.

(B) Both A and R are true, but R is not the correct explanation of A.

(C) A is true, but R is false.

(D) A is false, but R is true.

THE SURAT SPLIT

(1907)

Surat Split -1907

Background

- Swadeshi movement increased differences between assertive and early nationalists
- Assertive Nationalists wanted to spread 'Swadeshi and Boycott' to all India level
- Early Nationalists wanted to keep it limited to Bengal only

Disagreement over INC President

- 1906- INC Calcutta session –dispute over next INC president
- Dadabhai Naoroji-became president – respected by both groups
- Differences between two groups over issues-swadeshi , Swaraj and national education
- 1907 session-same issues raised again
- 1907 session-president – Early Nationalists proposed –Rash Behari Ghosh ; Assertive – Lala Lajpat Rai

Outcome

- Split in Congress in 1907-Surat session. Assertives expelled out of INC
- British got the opportunity to divide and rule
- Split formalized in Allahabad Session-1908
- Weakened the national movement
- Assertive Nationalists remained out of Congress for 9 years
