VICTORY 2027

First Phase Of National Movement

LECTURE-1 History

Kunal Sir

Topics To Be Covered

1. Early Nationalists
2. Objectives and Methods
3. Contributions
4. Questions

(c) First Phase of the Indian National Movement (1885-1907) - objectives and methods of struggle of the Early Nationalists. Any two contributions of Dadabhai Naoroji, Surendranath Banerjee and Gopal Krishna Gokhale.

Indian National Movement

Early Nationalists
(Moderates)
←
First Phase
(1885 – 1907)

Second Phase
(1907 – 1916)
Radicals / Assertive

Gandhian Phase
(1915 – 1947)

- The Early Nationalist Phase (1885-1907)

- The Assertive Nationalist Phase (1907-1916)
- The Gandhian Era (1915-1947)

The Early Nationalists

(Moderates)

- In its starting years the Congress was led by a group of leaders known as the Early Nationalists who were educated middle class consisting of professionals like lawyers, barristers, teachers and officials.
- Many of them were educated in England and believed that British will be good to Indians

Early Nationalist Leaders

Bengal

- W.C. Banerjee,
- Rashbehari Ghosh,
- Surendranath Banerjee
- R.C. Dutt

Maharashtra and Gujarat

- Dadabhai Naoroji,
- Gopal Krishna Gokhale,
- Pherozeshah Mehta
- Justice Ranade

Common Belief

- The Early Nationalist leaders were believers in open-minded and 'moderate' politics.
- They believed in loyalty to the British Crown.

➢ Who among the following was a prominent leader from Maharashtra and Gujarat?

a. W.C. Bannerjee

b. R.C Dutt

c. Gopal Krishna Gokhale

d. Surendranath Bannerjee

Beliefs of The Early Nationalists

Beliefs of The Early Nationalists

1. Early Nationalists -had faith in the sense of justice, fair play, honesty and integrity of the British.

2. Hoped that the British would grant 'Home Rule' to Indians

↳ power to decide internal matters

3. They believed that the British rule had many benefits.

4. Britain would help Indians govern themselves according to western standards.

5.Relied on constitutional and peaceful methods to achieve their aims

Demands –Early Nationalists

(Not in Exams)

(Not in Syllabus)

Centre Province

Constitutional Reforms

based in London

- Abolition of India Council
- Expansion of Legislative Assemblies and councils-at centre and provinces
- Increase in membership of Indians
- Raised slogans –"No Taxation without Representation"
- Demand for self govt. within British empire
- Representation of Indians in Executive Council of the Viceroy and Governors

Economic Reforms

Tax

- Reduction in land revenue
- Protection of peasants against unjust demands of the zamindars.
- Reduction in army expenditure
- Inquiry into India's growing poverty and famines
- Cheap loans to farmers through agricultural banks
- Development of banking , irrigation , medical and health facilities
- Industrial growth –trade protection; Abolition-salt and sugar tax

Administrative Demands

- Simultaneous ICS exams in India and England
- Separation of executive and judiciary
- Increase in powers of local bodies and reduce official control on them
- Repeal of Arms and License Act
- Indians –Higher position jobs ,spread-primary education; Improvement of police system

Demands –Early Nationalists

Defence Of Civil Rights

- Remove restrictions imposed by the British Government on the freedom of speech, and the freedom of the press.
- Abolition of the Preventive Detention Act and restoration of individual freedom.
- Restoration of right to assemble and to form associations

Media

Early Nationalists –Methods and Objectives

Constitutional Agitation Method

3 marks

First Set –Methods

- First objective -educate people in modern politics, form public opinion
- They held meetings where speeches were made and resolutions for popular demands were passed.
- Use of the press to criticise government policies
- They sent memorandums and petitions to government officials and the British Parliament.

Second Set –Methods

- Use of 3Ps- Petitions , Prayers and Protests.
- British Committee of INC set up in London (1889) which published A weekly journal, India, to present India's case before the British public.
- Deputations of Indian leaders were sent to Britain. Ex: Dadabhai Naoroji spent his major life in Britain to create awareness about Indian problems

2 The Early Nationalists primarily relied on which of the following methods to achieve their goals?

(A) Boycotts and Swadeshi Movement

(B) Constitutional means and petitions

(C) Armed rebellion

(D) Religious propaganda

Achievements of The Early Nationalists

1. Created national awakening among people that they belonged to one common country-India.

2. Trained people in politics by promoting the ideas of democracy, civil liberties, secularism and nationalism

3. Exposed true nature of British Rule in India.

4. Their political and economic programmes –stressed on ruling India in the interest of Indians

5.Their efforts led to following reforms :

- Appointment of Public Service Commission(1886).
- Resolution of House of Commons(1893)-for simultaneous ICS exams in London and India .
- Appointment –Welby Commission on Indian Expenditure(1895)
- Indian Councils Act (1892)

Early Nationalists – Criticism

1

- The methods used were criticised as inadequate. They depended on the kindness of the British.

insufficient

2

- They failed to realise that British and Indian interests clashed with each other.

3

- They failed to large no. of people into movement . Their area of influence was limited to the urban educated Indians.

* Common people were not able to relate

Attitude of British Towards Congress

- Initially –British supported Congress .Few British officials attended 1st Session of Congress
- Congress members were invited to a garden party by the Viceroy, Lord Dufferin in Kolkata (1886)

- But soon attitude changed – Lord Dufferin tried to divert National Movement –by suggesting Hume to ask Congress- focus on social reforms rather than politics
- 1890-British officials-not allowed to attend Congress meetings . British followed divide and rule policy – Encouraged Sir Sayyid Ahmed Khan, Raja Shiva Prasad –start anti Congress movements
- Congress –became focus of Indian Nationalism .1887-Lord attacked INC in his speech –called it-'microscopic minority of people' ,disloyal babus, violent villains

➢ Why did the influence of Early Nationalists decline ?

a. Lack of support from people
b. Opposition from the Moderates
c. Suppressed by the British
d. Rise of radical leader like Lal , Bal , Pal

Assertive

Prominent Early Nationalist Leaders

↳ Any 3 Contributions

(Learn)

DADABHAI NAOROJI (1825-1917)

- Dadabhai Naoroji, popularly known as the 'Grand Old Man of India', was born in a Parsi family in Mumbai on September 4, 1825.
- He worked as a Professor of Mathematics in Elphinstone College at Mumbai for ten years.
- In 1855, he left the teaching profession and went to England as a partner in a firm.
- In 1869 he returned to Mumbai. He was elected to the Mumbai Municipal Corporation and later to the Town Council.

DADABHAI NAOROJI (1825-1917)

- He founded the Bombay Association, edited the newspaper Rast Goftar ('Speaker of Truth').
- He started a magazine 'Dharma Marg Darshak'.
- He started movements against the Vernacular Press Act and the atrocious treatment of poor peasants by zamindars.

Contributions Of Dadabhai Naoroji

1 India's Unofficial Ambassador:

- ✓ During his stay in England, Dadabhai was known as India's unofficial ambassador, fighting for the cause of his country.
- ✓ In 1865, he founded the London India Society in collaboration with W.C. Banerjee as a forum to air grievances of Indians.
- ✓ He was the first Indian to become the member of the British House of Commons in England.
- ✓ While he was a member of the British Parliament, he made the House aware about important matters related to India.
- ✓ He was in favour of appointing educated Indians to high posts.

1 India's Unofficial Ambassador:

- ✓ It was due to his efforts that in 1893 the House of Commons passed a resolution in favour of holding the Imperial Civil Service (I.C.S.) Examination in England and India simultaneously.
  - ↳ at the same time
- ✓ In 1866, he founded the East India Association in London.
- ✓ The East India Association soon became popular and its branches were set up in Kolkata, Mumbai and Chennai.

KMC

Who was the first Indian to be elected to the British House of Commons?

(A) Bal Gangadhar Tilak

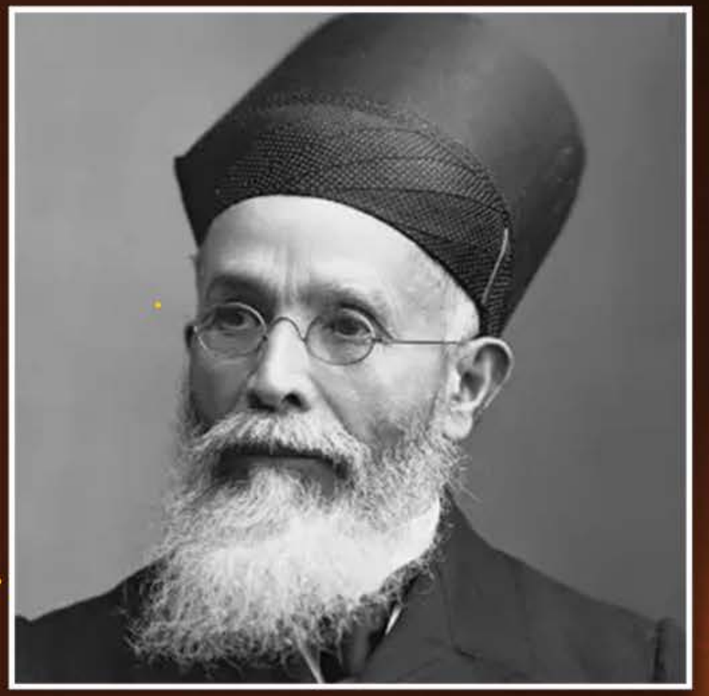

(B) Surendranath Banerjee

(C) Dadabhai Naoroji

(D) Bipin Chandra Pal

2 Role in the Congress: Dadabhai's role in the Congress was important.

- He took an active part in the foundation of the Indian National Congress and was elected its President thrice, in 1886, 1893 and 1906 respectively.
- Resolutions on Self-government, Boycott, Swadeshi and National Education were passed by the Congress under his Presidentship.
- The credit for demanding Swaraj from the Congress platform for the first time (1906) goes to him.
- In his Presidential address, he said that the Congress wanted Self-government or Swaraj like that of Canada or Australia.

Dadabhai Naoroji

3 Exposed the Economic Ills of India: As an economic thinker, he came to the conclusion that the root cause for the economic ills of India was the exploitation of India by the British.

- Dadabhai's views on Indian economy are given in his work entitled 'Poverty and Un-British Rule in India'.
- His famous 'Drain Theory' explained how India's wealth was being 'drained' to England through various ways.
- Dadabhai passed away in 1917 leaving behind a lesson of selfless service to the nation.

Which book by Dadabhai Naoroji highlighted the economic exploitation of India by the British?

(A) Poverty and Un-British Rule in India

(B) The Spirit of Laws

(C) Hind Swaraj

(D) India Wins Freedom

HOMEWORK

Type Here

Ques

① Mention any two Contributions of Dadabhai Naoroji? (2)

② With respect to Early Nationalists, outline any three ways in which they opposed the British (3)

Thank You